student experience However librarians and student affairs professionals are largely unfamiliar with each other's roles in student learning By using multiple focus groups Long describes the experiences and perceptions of librarians and student affairs professionals at several four year residential colleges and universities He identifies ways librarians and student affairs professionals share common values and can approach partnerships successfully but also the barriers that result when these two groups don't fully understand each other's roles in student learning This book is the perfect road map for librarians and student affairs professionals alike who are seeking partners for campus collaborations Librarian as Communicator Helen Fallon, Graham Walton, 2019-05-17 As the information landscape evolves and takes shape using traditional and new platforms it is the role of Academic Libraries to take the lead in communicating developing and informing these changes in timely and relevant ways Experienced librarians and those new to the field seek out innovative and more effective way to engage with users and stakeholders This book provides a variety of communication strategies for different user groups taking into account the changing information landscape and the application and implications of social media developments A major driver in higher education is the change in the scholarly communication model where initiatives such as Open Access Institutional Repositories and Data Management are challenging previous practice whilst offering new opportunities for leadership These communication developments provide opportunities for academic librarians who need the insight and awareness to take these chances Librarian as Communicator provides research based explorations of the above topics covering developing areas and also the communication skills that are needed for the academic library to have a continuing role in the 21st Century It was originally published as a special issue of the journal New Review of Academic Librarianship
