Journalism Studies Philip Hammond:

Journalism Studies Andrew Calcutt, Philip Hammond, 2011-01-31 Journalism Studies is a polemical textbook aiming to rethink the field of journalism studies for the contemporary era

Race, Racism and Sports Journalism Neil Farrington, Daniel Kilvington, 2012 Beginning with a theoretical discussion of race sport and media this book critically examines issues of race racism and sports journalism and offers practical advice on sports reporting including a discussion of guidelines for ethical journalism In a series of case studies representations of race will be explored through historical and contemporary analysis of international media coverage including online and digital platforms The background and impacts of these representations will also be discussed through interviews with athletes and sports journalists Subjects covered include cricket in the UK Australian and Asian media with particular focus on Pakistan athletics and media representations of athletes including a study of the reporting of South African runner Caster Semenya football and the under representation of British Asians with an analysis of how race is constructed in the digital arena boxing with particular reference to Muhammad Ali America and Islam Formula One and analysis of the media reporting international spectator response and racism towards Lewis Hamilton described in the media as the first black driver Finally the book will analyse the make up of sports journalism examining the causes and consequences of a lack of diversity within the profession

Rethinking Journalism Chris Peters, Marcel Jeroen Broersma, 2013 There is no doubt journalism faces challenging times This book argues that we have to rethink journalism fundamentally Rather than just focus on the symptoms of the crisis of journalism this collection tries to understand the structural transformation journalism is undergoing

The Routledge Companion to British Media History Martin Conboy, John Steel, 2014-09-15 The Routledge Companion to British Media History provides a comprehensive exploration of how different media have evolved within social regional and national contexts The 50 chapters in this volume written by an outstanding team of internationally respected scholars bring together current debates and issues within media history in this era of rapid change and also provide students and researchers with an essential collection of comparable media histories The Routledge Companion to British Media History provides an essential guide to key ideas issues concepts and debates in the field Chapter 40 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 3.0 license https://www.routledgehandbooks.com/doi/10.4324/9781315756202_ch40

Changing Journalism Peter Lee-Wright, Angela Phillips, Tamara Witschge, 2011-07-14 Journalism is in transition Irrevocable decisions are being made often based on flimsy evidence which could change not only the future of journalism but also the future of democracy This book based on extensive research provides the opportunity to reflect upon these decisions and considers how journalism could change for the better and for the good of democracy It covers the business landscape work and employment the regulatory framework audiences and interaction the impact of technology on practices and content ethics in a converged world The book analyses research in both national and local journalism broadcast newspaper and online journalism broadsheet and tabloid drawing comparisons between the different outlets in the field of news journalism making this essential reading for scholars and students of journalism and media studies

Data for Journalism Jingrong Tong, 2022-07-21 Considering the interactions between developments in open data and data journalism Data for Journalism Between Transparency and Accountability offers an interdisciplinary account of this complex and uncertain relationship in a context of tightening the control over data and weighing transparency against privacy As data has brought both promise and disruptive changes to societies the relationship between transparency and accountability has become complicated and data journalism is practised alongside the contradictory needs of opening up and protecting data In addition to exploring the benefits of data for journalism this book addresses the uncertain nature of data and the obstacles preventing data from being fluently accessed and properly used for data reporting Because of these obstacles it argues individual data journalists play a decisive role in using data for journalism and facilitating the circulation of data Frictions in data access newsrooms resources and cultures and data journalists skill and data literacy levels determine the degree to which journalism can benefit from data and these factors potentially exacerbate digital inequalities between newsrooms in different countries and with different resources As such the author takes an international perspective drawing on empirical research and cases from around the world including countries such as the UK the US Germany Sweden Australia India China and Japan Introducing a new dimension to the study of developments in journalism and the role of journalism in society Data for Journalism will be of interest to academics and researchers in the fields of journalism and the sociology of big and open data

Media, War and Postmodernity Philip Hammond, 2007-10-10 Discussing theorists including Baudrillard and Virilio and covering conflicts including the two Gulf Wars Somalia Bosnia Haiti Rwanda Kosovo Afghanistan and the War on Terror this book investigates the new character of modern warfare and why media presentation of conflict is so central to both Western military operations and terrorists

Peace Journalism Jake Lynch, Annabel McGoldrick, 2005 Professional journalists Jake Lynch and Annabel McGoldrick draw on 30 years experience reporting for the BBC ITV Sky News the London Independent and ABC Australia They teach Peace Journalism in departments of Journalism and Peace Studies at several universities They have led training workshops for editors and reporters in many countries including the UK USA Indonesia the Philippines Nepal the Middle East and the Caucasus

Screens of Terror Phil Hammond, 2011 The essays in this collection first came together at a conference held at London South Bank University's Centre for Media and Culture Research in September 2010 on representations of the war on terror in film and television

Climate Change and Post-Political Communication Philip Hammond, 2017-11-28 For many years the objective of environmental campaigners was to push climate change on to the agenda of political leaders and to encourage media attention to the issue By the first decade of the twenty first century it appeared that their efforts had been spectacularly successful Yet just at the moment when the campaigners goals were being achieved it seemed that the idea of getting the issue into mainstream discussion had been mistaken all along that the consensus building approach produced little or no meaningful action That is the problem of climate change as a post political issue which is the subject of this book Examining how climate change is communicated in politics news media and celebrity culture Climate Change and Post Political Communication explores how the issue has been taken up by elites as potentially offering a sense of purpose or mission in the absence of political visions of the future and considers the ways in which it provides a focus for much broader anxieties about a loss of modernist political agency and meaning Drawing on a wide range of literature and case studies and taking a critical and contextual approach to the analysis of climate change communication this book will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of environmental studies communication studies and media and film studies

Journalism Studies Andrew Calcutt, Philip Hammond, 2011-01-31 As the world of politics and public affairs has gradually changed beyond recognition over the past two decades journalism too has been transformed yet the study of news and journalism often seems stuck with ideas and debates which have lost much of their critical purchase Journalism is at a crossroads it needs to reaffirm core values and rediscover key activities almost certainly in new forms or it risks losing its distinctive character as well as its commercial basis Journalism Studies is a polemical textbook that rethinks the field of journalism studies for the contemporary era Organised around three central themes ownership objectivity and the public Journalism Studies addresses the contexts in which journalism is produced practised and disseminated It outlines key issues and debates reviewing established lines of critique in relation to the state of contemporary journalism then offering alternative ways of approaching these issues seeking to reconceptualise them in order to suggest an agenda for change and development in both journalism studies and journalism itself Journalism Studies is a concise and accessible introduction to contemporary journalism studies and will be highly useful to undergraduate and postgraduate students on a range of Journalism Media and Communications courses

Communicating War Sarah Maltby, Richard Keeble, 2007 Wars are now mediated in unprecedented ways and through a variety of communicative forms Correspondingly there is an increasing awareness among those involved in war of the need to gauge and manage what is communicated Communicating War Media Memory and Military contextualises these developments by locating the emergence of recent wars and terrorist activity in a wider frame of global socio political change highlighting the social political and historical aspects of communicating war This includes the remembering and forgetting of wars through cultures of collective memory and media selectivity the organization practice and culture of media institutions in the mediation of war information and the strategic use of information by military institutions and terrorist organizations in the execution of war and terrorist acts Remaining sensitive to the complexities of conflict the book moves beyond a focus on UK and US interventions and reflects upon the communication of war in relation to all forms of conflict particularly terrorism and under reported civil conflicts Adopting a multi disciplinary approach Communicating War Memory Media Military will be of interest to students in journalism media war and peace studies international relations and international politics Contributors include practitioners from within the journalistic and military communities and international scholars from a broad range of social sciences Stuart Allan David Altheide Chris Atton Oliver Boyd Barrett Nico Carpentier Neal Curtis Richard Keeble Andrew Hoskins Makram Khoury Machool Sarah Maltby Donald Matheson Lara Pawson Ron Schleifer Martin Shaw Angus Taverner John Tulloch Howard Tumber and Jeremy Tunstall REVIEWERS COMMENTS Few topics of media research affect us more personally and emotionally than how media represents war and the military s partly hidden role in that process Communicating War is a wide ranging and important contribution to that debate which also has the advantage of being right up todate Essential reading Nick Couldry Professor of Media and Communications Goldsmiths University of London We live in an age where the relationship between war and communications media is more complex and more urgent than ever before Communicating War is therefore to be welcomed Its rich collection sets the agenda as does the War and Media Network from which it emerges Crucially the collection reminds us of that which is forgotten which can be as important in the war media relationship today as those things embedded in memory James Gow Professor of International Peace and Security Kings College London A timely and hugely valuable contribution to the scholarly literature on news about conflict and war The range of contributors and the variety of themes covered make this collection essential reading for students and researchers of conflict reporting in the post 9 11 world Brian McNair Professor of Journalism and Communication University of Strathclyde Communicating War is a timely collection of great diversity bringing both historical depth and theoretical sophistication to a range of urgent contemporary debates about the media s role in war Philip Hammond Reader in Media and Communications London South Bank University Educational Review Nicholas Murray Butler, Frank Pierrepont Graves, 1916 Vols 19 34 include Bibliography of education for 1899 1906 compiled by James I Wyer and others Educational Review , 1903 Russian Reports Jan Ekecrantz, Kerstin Olofsson, 2000 The National Faculty Directory , 1977 Purple, Green and Gold , 1959
