Outward Foreign Direct Investment in ASEAN Cassey Lee, 2017-02-15 The level of outward foreign direct investment OFDI flows from ASEAN countries has increased rapidly in past two decades This book examines OFDI trends and patterns in the ASEAN region including the impact of the ASEAN Economic Community It also provides analyses of country policies affecting OFDI and the drivers of OFDI in Indonesia Malaysia Singapore and Vietnam Myanmar is studied as an investment frontier for other ASEAN countries e The dynamic economies of Southeast Asia have historically been very large recipients of foreign direct investment FDI As global capital markets have opened up and these economies have developed their technological and commercial capabilities in more recent years Southeast Asia has emerged as a significant source of outward FDI both within the region and beyond This important volume by a group of leading regional scholars offers a timely comprehensive accessible and authoritative analysis of this phenomenon e Hal Hill H

W Arndt Professor of Southeast Asian Economies Arndt Corden Department of Economics Crawford School of Public Policy Australian National University e A timely rich and comprehensive study filling a major gap in the literature on the increasingly important phenomenon of foreign investment flowing out from regions including developing and middle income countries e Luke Nottage Professor of Comparative and Transnational Business Law Associate Director Centre for Asian and

Pacific Law at the University of Sydney The Political Economy of Southeast Asia Toby Carroll, Shahar Hameiri, Lee Jones, 2020-03-03 This is not only the best collection of essays on the political economy of Southeast Asia but also as a singular achievement of the Murdoch School one of the rarest of books that demonstrates how knowledge production travels across generations institutions and time periods thereby continually enriching itself No course on Southeast Asia can afford to miss it as its core text Professor Amitav Acharya American University USA This book the fourth in a path breaking series demonstrates why a critical political economy approach is more crucial than ever for understanding Southeast Asia's transformation Across a wide range of topics the book explains how capitalist development and globalisation are reshaping the societies economies and politics of a diverse group of countries casting light on the deep sources of economic and social power in the region This is a book that every student of Southeast Asia needs to read Professor Edward Aspinall Australian National University Australia This book does what a work on political economy should do challenge existing paradigms in order to gain a deeper understanding of the processes of social transformation This volume is distinctive in three ways First it eschews methodological nationalism and focuses on how the interaction of national regional and global forces are shaping and reshaping systems of governance mass politics economies labor capital relations migration and gender relations across the region Second it is a bold effort to show how the Murdoch School which focuses on the dynamic synergy of internal class relations and global capitalism provides a better explanatory framework for understanding social change in Southeast Asia than the rival developmental state and historical institutionalist approaches Third alongside established luminaries in the field it showcases the younger generation of political economists doing pathbreaking work on different dimensions of the political economy of the region Walden Bello State University of New York at Binghamton USA and Former Member of the Philippines House of Representatives This very timely fourth edition explores Southeast Asia s political economy within the context of hyperglobalisation and China s pronounced social structural impacts on international politics finance and economics over the past decade and a half The volume successfully adopts a cross cutting thematic approach while also conveying the diversity and divergences among the Southeast Asian states and economies This will be an important resource for scholars of International Relations and Comparative Politics who need to take an interest in a dynamic and increasingly significant part of Asia Professor Evelyn Goh Australian National University Australia This ambitious collection takes a consistent theoretical approach and applies it to a thematic comparative analysis across Southeast Asia The yield is impressive the social political and economic forces constituting the current conjuncture are not simply invoked they are thoroughly identified and explained By posing the deceptively simple questions of what is happening and why the authors demonstrate the reciprocal relation between theory building and empirical inquiry providing a model of engaged scholarship with global resonance Bravo Professor Tania Li University of Toronto Canada Counteracting the spaceless and flattened geography of much literature on uneven development this book delivers a forensic examination of the unevenness of geographical development in Southeast Asia and the relations of force shaping capital state nature and civil society This is the most compelling theoretical and empirical political economy book available on Southeast Asia Professor Adam David Morton University of Sydney Australia A vital book for all scholars students and practitioners concerned with political economy and development this volume combines cutting edge theory with rich and wide ranging empirical analysis It is terrific to see the continued success of this book with this fully revised fourth edition Professor Nicola Philips Kings College London UK The Political Economy of Southeast Asia has become a leading reference for students of the region With its

breadth of geographic scope timely themes clarity of prose and rigour of analysis Carroll Hameiri and Jones have ensured that with this fourth edition the volume will continue its landmark status The book which brings together prominent experts in the field will not only be of immense interest to scholars studying Southeast Asia but also those seeking to understand the multifaceted nature of the political economy of uneven development in contemporary capitalism Professor Susanne Soederberg Queen s University Canada The Asia Research Centre at Murdoch University has long produced leading analyses of the social economic and political developments in Southeast Asia This volume carries on that wonderful tradition It brings together top class scholars to challenge our assumptions about one of the most dynamic parts of the world This collection is a crucial read for anyone interested in understanding trends in Southeast Asia s development today and into the future Professor Richard Stubbs McMaster University Canada This fourth volume in a distinguished series provides a welcome and timely update of the Murdoch School s distinctive approach to understanding the evolving political economy of Southeast Asia Its theoretical depth and wide empirical scope will be of great value to scholars students and practitioners seeking a systematic understanding of the political economy dynamics in the Asian region and more broadly of states and regions embedded in a complex unstable global political economy Professor Andrew Walter University of Melbourne This all new fourth edition of The Political Economy of Southeast Asia constitutes a state of the art comprehensive analysis of the political economic social and ecological development of one of the world s most dynamic regions With contributions from world leading experts the volume is unified by a single theoretical approach the Murdoch School of political economy which foregrounds struggles over power and resources and the evolving global context of hyperglobalisation Themes considered include gender populism the transformation of the state regional governance aid and the environment The volume will be of interest to scholars and students across multiple disciplines including political economy development studies international relations and area studies The findings of contributors will also be of value to civil society policymakers and anyone interested in Southeast Asia and its development

Policies and Politics in Malaysian Education Cynthia

Joseph, 2017-11-22 This book draws on elements of critical social theory research on globalization neo liberalism and education and Malaysian Studies to understand the interplay of globalization nationalism cultural politics and ethnicized neoliberalism in shaping the educational reforms in Malaysia Using the Malaysia Education Blueprint 2013 2025 MEB as a case study a catalyst and a context this collection critically explores some of the complex historical and contemporary push pull politics and factors shaping Malaysia s education system its reform and the experience of Malaysians and others within it The authors in this volume focus on the interplay of neoliberalism nationalism ethnic and cultural politics in shaping the educational reforms in Malaysia Their work captures and seeks to understand the enduring though changing hierarchy of access and differentiated rights to educational social and economic resources and opportunities experienced by different individuals and collectives including those involved in the neoliberal enterprise of international education It looks at how inequities have been re configured in different educational spaces in Malaysia and at how these inequities have been addressed through reform policies and practices The book will be a shaper and critical contributor to the assessment of the Malaysian Education Blueprint and related policies It will also have wider relevance globally as a critical approach to policy discussion

The Malaysian Estates Staff Provident Fund 1947-2017 Jerayaj C. Rajarao, In this book Jerayaj C Rajarao provides a detailed and compelling account of the first provident fund established in Malaya through co operation between plantation companies the All Malayan Estates Staff Union and the then colonial government of Malaya This account also situates the MESPF in the broader political economic and social situation in colonial and post colonial Malaya and later Malaysia highlighting the impact of colonial capitalism and labour regulation the importance of immigration the growth of state intervention in the economy transformations in the plantation industry the impacts of global financial crises on the MESPF As the first history of MESPF The Malaysian Estates Staff Provident Fund 1947 2017 also offers a systematic account of its development tracing its growth and expansion alongside the rubber and oil palm industries that have been so crucial to the Malaysian economy

Trade Regionalism in the Asia-Pacific Sanchita Basu Das, Masahiro Kawai, 2016-04-11 Asia has witnessed a proliferation of free trade agreements FTAs since the turn of the millennium The first regional agreement the ASEAN FTA was transformed into the ASEAN Economic Community at the end of 2015 In the meantime ASEAN forged five ASEAN 1 FTAs and began to negotiate a sixteen member Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership RCEP Agreement In parallel the U S led Trans Pacific Partnership TPP supporting U S foreign policy of Pivot to Asia was broadly agreed in October 2015 The RCEP and the TPP are accompanied by other mega regional integration processes developing elsewhere in the world including the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership for the European Union and the United States and the Pacific Alliance among four Latin American member states Meanwhile APEC is also striving to meet its Bogor Goal targets and create a Free Trade Area of the Asia Pacific Each of these mega regionals aims to achieve greater trade and investment liberalization and facilitation and more harmonized trade and investment rules so that all member economies can participate in the global value chain of production Instead of undermining these regional exercises can be building blocks for a more liberal global trading system supported by the World Trade Organization This book ruminates on these regional agreements their economic and strategic rationales and challenges during negotiations and afterwards The book brings together eminent scholars and experts to deepen our understanding of the complex nature of the mega regional trade agreements and their implications It is useful both for the academic and research community and for policymakers who focus on trade and economic cooperation issues
