The Status of Student Involvement in University Governance in Kenya M. Mulinge,N. Arasa,2017-05-05 This book examines the concept of the democratization of governance in universities in Kenya with particular emphasis on students involvement in governance processes and decision making Data were collected from members of the student community utilizing a structured self administered questionnaire and from purposively selected key informants and focus group discussants drawn from Kenyatta University representing the public sector and the United States International University representing the private sector The guiding argument for the study was that shared governance one of the principles of good governance is critical in enabling the universities to deliver their visions and the missions effectively The results revealed that while in principle Kenyan universities have embraced democratic governance in which all stakeholders including students have a role to play in practice they continue to violate the core principles of good governance particularly shared governance Specifically students who are major stakeholders in university education are largely excluded from significant structures of governance thereby limiting their influence and participation Although their representation is mainly provided via student self governance organs unions associations and or councils their effectiveness is undermined considerably by the lack of trust and confidence of the student body and the unending manipulation by top university administrators and external political actors Student active involvement in decision making is mainly confined to lower levels such as the school faculty and departmental programme The authors call for a paradigm shift in the involvement of students in the governance of universities in ways that discourage the current culture of tokenism and political correctness that characterizes public and private universities in Kenya Education and Society Jackson Mobisa Mogeni,Locha Erukudi,Everlyne Achieng Owuor,Rachael Mwendu,Garat Hassan Osman,2023-11-06 TOPICS IN THE BOOK Extent of Teacher Preparedness and Capacity to Implement Information and Communication Technologies in the Nepad E Schools Kenya Influence of Food Adequacy on Enrolment in ECE Centres in Turkana Central Sub County Turkana County Kenya Influence of Socialization on Academic Performance of Learners With Hearing Impairment at Inclusive Primary Schools in Kenya A Case in Thawabu Primary of Nairobi City County College Conversion Into Covid 19 Quarantine Center Readiness of Students to Go Back to College Influence of Headteachers Involvement of Female Teachers on Girls Access to Public Primary Education in Garissa Sub County Garissa County Kenya Mount Kenya Area Heinrich Speck,1983 Papers from the Geological Department,
