Bombay Modern Anjali Nerlekar, 2016-05-15 Anjali Nerlekar s Bombay Modern is a close reading of Arun Kolatkar s canonical poetic works that relocates the genre of poetry to the center of both Indian literary modernist studies and postcolonial Indian studies Nerlekar shows how a bilingual materialist reading of Kolatkar s texts uncovers a uniquely resistant sense of the local that defies the monolingualistic cultural pressures of the post 1960 years and straddles the boundaries of English and Marathi writing Bombay Modern uncovers an alternative and provincial modernism through poetry a genre that is marginal to postcolonial studies and through bilingual scholarship across English and Marathi texts a methodology that is currently peripheral at best to both modernist studies and postcolonial literary criticism in India Eschewing any attempt to define an overarching or universal modernism Bombay Modern delimits its sphere of study to Bombay and to the post 1960 the sathottari period in an attempt to examine at close range the specific way in which this poetry redeployed the regional the national and the international to create a very tangible yet transient local

New Writing in India Adil Jussawalla, 2025-08-30 Adil Jussawalla s anthology of Indian writing was first published in 1974 Today more than half a century later it remains one of the landmarks of our literature featuring writers from various Indian languages including English whose works have stood the test of time The book traces a map of what Jussawalla calls literary and linguistic cross currents through the writings of Nirmal Verma Hindi Sunil Gangopadhyay Bengali Bhalchandra Nemade Marathi P Lankesh Kannada and Ashokamitran Tamil among other literary greats This anthology challenges the colonial notion of Indian literature as a collection of exotica as well as the terrible misconception that modern Indian writing is an inferior mimicry of Western forms What we have here is a literary record that stands out for the originality of the voices it contains and yet underscores a set of shared themes and artistic concerns that galvanized these writers and brought them together When this book was first published the pieces collected here were barely a decade old and hence were presented under the rubric of New Indian Writing of the time But as Amit Chaudhuri reminds us in his introduction to the anniversary edition the term new in the title is not merely a reference to recency but to a self replenishing revolutionary quality that never diminishes in great literature Ezra Pound once said that
