May June 2011 English Memorandum P3:

Sixty Years of Service in Africa Julius A. Amin, 2023-10-06 Based on previously unused primary sources obtained from both sides of the Atlantic this study provides a more fundamental consistent and balanced source based assessment of the role of the U S Peace Corps across its entire existence in Africa The study sheds light on a new and intriguing historical perspective of the Peace Corps meaning and significance Though the main trust is Cameroon the study offers a window to understanding Peace Corps performance in all of Africa and the larger global community It examines Volunteers service in countries including Nigeria Ghana Togo and Guinea showing how the agency transitioned from a Cold War agency to the Post Cold War era while asking important questions about the continuous relevance of Peace Corps in Africa In addressing the topic the book goes beyond the Peace Corps and delves into America s Achilles heels which was the culture of anti black racism showing how it impacted U S foreign policy in the post World War II era The book interrogates modernization theories showing how those ideas shaped the creation of the Peace Corps but ultimately contributed to the agency s problems The book questions the Peace Corps effectiveness as a development organization and much more Yet for all the agency s problems the Peace Corps served as a rite of passage for returned Volunteers to make everlasting contributions to American life and society This book contributes to modern African and American studies and to diplomatic history

The Military in Post-Revolutionary Iran Hesam Forozan, 2015-10-14 Iran s Revolutionary Guard Corps also known as the Sepah has wielded considerable and increasing power in Iran in recent decades Established in 1979 by Ayatollah Khomeini as a paramilitary organisation charged with protecting the nascent Islamic regime and countering the untrustworthy Imperial army or Artesh the Sepah has evolved into one of the most powerful political ideological military and economic players in Iran over recent years The Sepah is entrusted with a diverse set of indoctrination apparatus training programmes and system welfare provisions intended to broaden support for the regime Although established as a paramilitary organisation the Sepah developed to have its own ministry complex bureaucracy and diversified functions alongside its own network and personnel This book provides a comprehensive overview of the Sepah and its role It examines the position of the Sepah in Iranian state and society explores the nature of the Sepah s involvement in politics and discusses the impact of the Sepah s political rise on Iran s economy and foreign policy Contemporary Iran can only be fully understood by an awareness of the ongoing in fighting among regime factions and increasing popular demands for social change knowing about the Sepah is central to all this

China and the European Union José María Beneyto, Chun Ding, Xinning Song, 2013-07-10 Any analysis of the current state of international affairs would require devoting a great deal of its efforts to the examination of the People s Republic of China its policies its capabilities its approaches as well as its position regarding a wide range of issues Not in vain the People s Republic of China is a rising power whose attitudes and policies will have a direct impact on the future development of the international system and the international relations within Thus the importance of the People s Republic of China status as a permanent member of the United Nations Security Council the impressive growth of both its GDP and its Defence Budget over the last few years and its relatively good performance through the global financial and economic crisis are all factors that might recommend to pay attention to the evolution of this country

Civic Engagement in Food System

Governance Alan R. Hunt, 2015-10-05 The local food movement is one of the most active of current civil engagement social movements This work presents primary evidence from over 900 documents interviews and participant observations and provides the first descriptive history of local food movement national policy achievements in the US from 1976 to 2013 and in the UK from 1991 to 2013 together with reviews of both the American and British local food movements It provides a US UK comparative context significantly updating earlier comparisons of American British and European farm and rural policies The comparative perspective shows that over time more effective strategies for national policy change required social movement building strategies such as collaborative policy coalitions capacity building for smaller organizations and policy entrepreneurship for joining together separate rural farming food and health interests In contrast narrowly defined single issue campaigns often undermined long term policy change even if short term wins emerged By profiling interviews of American and English movement leaders policymakers and funders the book demonstrates that democratic participation in food policy is best supported when funders incentivize groups to work together and overcome their differences

Uncharted Strait Richard C. Bush, 2013-01-14 The future of the Taiwan Strait is more wide open than at any other time in recent decades Tensions between China and Taiwan have eased since 2008 But the movement toward full rapprochement remains fragile Whether the two sides of the Strait can sustain and expand a cooperative relationship after years of mutual distrust and fear is still uncertain The waters of the Strait are uncharted and each side worries about shoals beneath the surface The current engagement between Beijing and Taipei may make possible a solution to their six decade long dispute Whether when and how that might happen is however shrouded in doubt China fears the island's permanent separation by way of either an overt move to de jure independence or continued refusal to unify with the mainland Taiwan fears subordination to an authoritarian regime that does not have Taipei's interests at heart And the United States worries about the stability of the East Asian region Richard Bush who studied issues surrounding Taiwan during almost twenty years in the U S government explains the current state of relations between China and Taiwan providing the details of what led to the current situation And he extrapolates on the likely future of cross Strait relations Bush also discusses America's stake analyzing possible ramifications for U S interests in the critically important East Asia region and recommends steps to protect those interests At the heart of the Taiwan conundrum is a question of definition Does the dispute stem from the protracted division of the Chinese state after World War II or does the Republic of China on Taiwan in some sense constitute a successor state of the old Republic of China ROC one on a par with the People's Republic of China on the Chinese mainland Whether and how the unification of the two entities might occur hinges on the answer Indeed I have argued that the core of the dispute between the two sides has been their disagreement over whether the Republic of China or Taiwan is a sovereign entity for purposes of cross Strait relations It follows that if unification is a real option the two sides must form a political union that bridges the disagreement over the island s legal status Is that possible from the Introduction      Fragile Frontiers Saroj Kumar Rath,2015-06-03 Critical questions remain unanswered on the events of the cold blooded and devastating terror attacks in Mumbai on 26 November 2008 Investigative and introspective this book offers a lucid and graphic account of the ill fated day and traces the changing dynamics of terror in South Asia Using new insights it explores South Asia s regional dynamics of antagonism the ever present challenge to the frontiers of India Pakistan and the terrorism question the strife in Afghanistan and the self serving selective US war on terror This will be an engaging read for those interested in defence security and strategic studies politics international relations peace and conflict studies and South Asian studies as well as the general reader      Understanding Mega Free Trade Agreements Jean-Baptiste Velut,Louise Dalingwater,Vanessa Boulet,Valérie Peyronel,2017-08-23 The rise of cross regional trade agreements is a defining trend of the current international trade system as shown by the signing of the Trans Pacific Partnership TPP in 2015 the negotiations for the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership TTIP between the USA and the EU as well as the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership RCEP between countries in Asia and Oceania These differ from previous agreements in their economic significance and large geographic scale and the wide scope of trade related issues The current rise of nationalist and isolationist ideologies across Europe and the USA has raised questions on the future of cross regional trade deals and made the need to understand their implications for economic and political governance ever more urgent Two main forms of governance that are central to this volume are the democratic tensions over new generation trade deals on the one hand and their geopolitical ramifications on the other which have come into collision to herald the advent of a highly uncertain period of world politics Many of the questions tackled in this volume surrounding the democratic governance of trade agreements whether long held debates on the inclusion of workers voices controversies on intrusive behind the border provisions undermining national sovereignty and local autonomy or new questions on digital rights are crucial to understand the ebbing popular support for far reaching trade agreements This book will be a useful learning tool for students and scholars in a wide range of fields including Globalisation Global Governance International Political Economy International Trade and Investment and International Law and should also be of interest to EU trade negotiators international policymakers and business associations      Unmanned Combat Air Systems in Future Warfare C.
