John Manley Report Canada:

Report of the Superintendent of Insurance of the Dominion of Canada for the Year Ended December 31 ...

Canada. Department of Insurance, 1914 Canada's National Security in the Post-9/11 World David S.

McDonough, 2012-01-01 After the terrorist attacks of 9 11 which targeted the heart of financial and military power in the United States Canada once again proved its credentials as a key American ally With the imminent end of its combat role in Afghanistan however it is time to take stock of how Canada has adapted to the exigencies of the post 9 11 world and to consider the future directions for its foreign defence and security policies This timely exploration and re assessment of Canada s approach to strategic affairs offers a diverse set of nuanced sometimes controversial and always insightful perspectives on the most pressing security challenges that Canada currently faces Bringing together noted experts on these issues including a Canadian Senator a past Minister of National Defence former high level military officers and top scholars this collection provides powerful ideas and guidance for the difficult task of formulating an overarching national security strategy Landmine Monitor Report 2001 Human Rights Watch (Organization), 2001 Total Defence Forces in the Twenty-First Century Joakim Berndtsson, Irina Goldenberg, Stéfanie von Hlatky, 2023-12-15 Total defence as a concept combines and extends military and civil defence in a state of war or emergency all social institutions mobilize to defend the state Total defence forces led by a diverse workforce of defence and security professionals are critical to both national defence and international security goals Total Defence Forces in the Twenty First Century looks at the various groups that make up this workforce members of the military s regular force reservists defence civil servants and contractors working for private military and security companies When civilian staff and military personnel work towards a common goal their distinct professional cultures and identities can make integration challenging Despite the often high levels of partnership underlying differences affect the quality of the collaboration and ultimately organizational and operational effectiveness Defence ministries around the world are increasingly recognizing the importance of optimizing the ways in which they employ and integrate civilian and military personnel This volume focuses on a critical question what are the main challenges to workforce integration and collaboration and how can such challenges be overcome to deliver the full potential of the total defence force Together scholars and practitioners provide some answers Canada as Statebuilder? Laura Grant, Benjamin Zyla, 2021-08-18 Canada s statebuilding efforts in Afghanistan are not well documented After fourteen years of significant investments in humanitarian causes there are still questions about the impact of these projects and whether they delivered as promised or fell short In Canada as Statebuilder Laura Grant and Benjamin Zyla analyze over one hundred and thirty Canadian led development projects in Afghanistan to illustrate that Canada has a limited capacity to effectively run humanitarian efforts in unstable insecure or inaccessible environments Canadian or Canadian sponsored development projects were ambitious and highly productive in terms of outputs in the short term especially in the areas of security women and gender health and education However when their outcomes and overall impact are assessed the authors argue Canada s record is less impressive Their analysis contributes to evidence based discussions of one of Canada s most important foreign policy activities in recent years Reflecting on Canada s engagement in Afghanistan Canada as Statebuilder asks whether Canadian peacekeeping efforts in the region were ultimately worth the economic and human resources invested Official Reports of the Debates of the House of Commons of the Dominion of Canada Canada. Parliament. House of Commons,1925 The Politics of War Jean-Christophe Boucher,Kim Richard Nossal,2017-10-15 When the Canadian government committed forces to join the military mission in Afghanistan following the terrorist attacks of September 11 2001 little did it foresee that this decision would involve Canada in a war riven country for over a decade The Politics of War explores how as the mission became increasingly unpopular Canadian politicians across the political spectrum began to use it to score points against their opponents This was politics with a vengeance Through historical analysis of the public record and interviews with officials Jean Christophe Boucher and Kim Richard Nossal show how the Canadian government sought to frame the engagement in Afghanistan as a mission rather than what it was a war They examine the efforts of successive governments to convince Canadians of the rightness of Canada s engagement the parliamentary politics that resulted from the increasing politicization of the mission and the impact of public opinion on Canada s involvement This contribution to the field of Canadian foreign policy demonstrates how much of Canada s war in Afghanistan was shaped by the vagaries of domestic politics and political gamesmanship Annual Financial Report of the Government of Canada Canada,2002 FINTRAC Annual Report Financial Transactions and Reports Analysis Centre of Canada,2002 Journals of the Senate of Canada Canada.
