The practice of cookery and pastry mrs. Williamson, I,1862 Four Generations Cookbook Beverley A. Benjamin,2017-01-09 As our six children moved out I would often receive a phone call asking Mom how did you make this What was the secret ingredient As a child I would watch my Mother cook and preserve fruit can and freeze vegetables bake and have family get together s to make Perogys I enjoyed cooking when I first took it in Junior High School and started to collect recipes I did a lot of family history and over the years I also was given many recipes from the family members plus saved many from other resources My Stepfather taught me the cooking of wild game to make it tender When I got married we had our own garden plus raised cattle chickens turkeys pigs rabbits and even tried ostriches We did our own butchering and I learned from my husband s boss how to do make headcheese from the pigs I made cottage cheese and butter from our milk cow I made sourdough from scratch also From our garden we froze a lot of the crop for the winter The fruit we grew got made into jams and jellies as well as the wild fruit that we picked Often we would go picking berries as a family outing or while Roy and I were haying the children would pick wild berries near the fields We would have a treat of fruit at the end of the day and the excess got made into preserves or into juice My one challenge was making bread even with a bread machine It never turned out Roy took over that challenge and got a recipe figured out that even now I cannot fail making bread The Grandchildren loved helping him make buns When Roy passed away I tried the recipe and when the Grandchildren tried the bread their remark was It taste s just like Grandpa s bread My recipes were in several boxes and I knew where the ones were that I used the most When I started entering my collection into a computer Roy suggested I should make a cookbook because

I had a collection of over a century of recipes I have done that now and the collection has recipes from early 1900 s with the old way of the size of the ingredients like amount of butter the size of an egg up to modern amounts I also have enclosed tips that were given to me over the years plus a few old poems that have a special meaning to me Dinner with the President Alex Prud'homme,2024-02-20 A wonderfully entertaining often surprising history of presidential taste from the grim meals eaten by Washington and his starving troops at Valley Forge to Trump s fast food burgers and Biden s ice cream what they ate why they ate it and what it tells us about the state of the nation from the coauthor of Julia Child s bestselling memoir My Life in France A beautifully written book about how the presidential palate has helped shape America Fascinating Stanley Tucci Some of the most significant moments in American history have occurred over meals as U S presidents broke bread with friends or foes Thomas Jefferson s nation building receptions in the new capital Washington D C Ulysses S Grant s state dinner for the king of Hawaii Teddy Roosevelt s groundbreaking supper with Booker T Washington Richard Nixon s practiced use of chopsticks to pry open China Jimmy Carter s cakes and pies that fueled a d tente between Israel and Egypt at Camp David Here Alex Prud'homme invites readers into the White House kitchen to reveal the sometimes curious tastes of twenty six of America s most influential presidents and the ways their choices affected food policy around the world And the White House menu grew over time from simple eggs and black coffee for Abraham Lincoln during the Civil War to jelly beans and enchiladas for Ronald Reagan and arugula for Barack Obama What our leaders say about food touches on everything from our nation s shifting diet and local politics to global trade war class gender race and so much more Prud'homme also details overlooked figures like George Washington s enslaved chef Hercules Posey whose meals burnished the president s reputation before the cook narrowly escaped to freedom and pioneering First Ladies such as Dolley Madison and Jackie Kennedy As he weaves these stories together Prud'homme shows that food is not just fuel when it is served to the most powerful people in the world It is a tool of communication a lever of power and persuasion and a symbol of the nation Included are ten authentic recipes for favorite presidential dishes such as Martha Washington s Preserved Cherries Abraham Lincoln s Gingerbread Men William H Taft s Billy Bi Mussel Soup Franklin D Roosevelt s Reverse Martini Lady Bird Johnson s Pedernales River Chili Campbell's Great Restaurants Cookbook, U.S.A , The Journal of the Department of Agriculture of South Australia South Australia.
