Mobility Matters Stepping Out In Faith:

Mobility Matters Amy L. Bovaird, 2014-10-04 Adventurous international teacher Amy Bovaird is diagnosed with Retinitis Pigmentosa a hereditary eye disease that will blind her In spite of that she manages to continue teaching overseas Then her father s final illness brings her back home for good There friends and acquaintances begin to notice that she doesn t always recognize them and sometimes stumbles as if drunk Insensitive students ridicule her in the classroom Unwilling to accept that she is truly losing her eyesight Amy resists when the Bureau of Blindness schedules a mobility specialist to begin training her to use a white cane How can she an independent world traveler use something that screams I am a blind person Will her faith prove strong enough to allow her to move forward and accept herself as she is Divine Revelations-Eye Openers Florencia Chang-Ageda, 2017-02-13 Florencia wrote Divine Revelations because she discovered the relevance of the Bible to her life What she discovered as she spent time in the Word revealed more than just God s love for mankind it changed her life She realized that as she took the time to meditate on God s Word she became more aware of the Presence of God in her daily life and who Christ is to her Spending time perusing the Bible has allowed her to experience the hearts of God and of Jesus It has also given her insight into the Omniscience and the Omnipotence of an Omnipresent and very loving God She also realized that because God sacrificed His most priceless gift Jesus for her He will never withhold any good thing from her The same is true for you She hopes that by sharing the truths she has discovered with you this book will pique your curiosity about the relevance of God and His Son and the Bible to your life Faith in Motion Hezron Ottey, 2025-09-25 Faith in Motion invites readers on a transformative journey where belief and behavior converge Drawing from groundbreaking research on the physical activity practices of the Seventh Day Adventist community in the UK Hezron Ottey explores how faith can be a powerful force not just for spiritual health but for physical and communal well being This compelling book uncovers the unique ways in which religious values cultural identity and lifestyle intersect to promote holistic health With a blend of narrative insight scholarly depth and lived experience Faith in Motion challenges readers whether scholars health professionals church leaders or seekers to rethink how theology can shape wellness community engagement and personal purpose In an age of rising health disparities this book offers a timely and hope filled vision that moving in faith can indeed move the world Blind Passion Vincent I Perry, 2020-10-01 A true story a personal love history an autobiographical memoir of a loving couple occurring during the years 1965 1976 at a major university in the state of Illinois The love affair involved a middle aged married woman and mother of three named Dorothy whose marriage had long been dead She rediscovered happiness when a blind college student named Grant half Dorothy s age fell in love with her and their love affair resulted in a happy marriage of thirty years a tribute to the power of true love This story is reconstructed from Dorothy s diary entries and from the phenomenal memory of Grant who has survived Dorothy s death Dorothy possessed extraordinary energy was a devoted mother a highly talented seamstress and an exceptional cook She had long fallen out of love with her husband Despite her energy and ingenuity invested in trying to raise her children properly she found herself constantly frustrated by their uncooperative shortcomings While trapped in this unrewarding home life Dorothy blazed her path out of her unhappy wilderness by first gaining self esteem as a successful singer in her local Sweet Adelines organization She acquired additional self worth by becoming an accomplished swimmer She was finally able to find an escape out of her home life through volunteer work at the university for blind students who instantly recognized her extraordinary loving nature and remarkable personality These students became her friends and gave her the honorific name Ma their loving and helpful mother away from home Within two years one of these students fell in love with her and she with him The book narrates how their love began evolved encountered adversities was increasingly sexualized and how the power of their love freed Dorothy from her marriage and opened up a new and fulfilling life for Dorothy and Grant It Was All a Dream Reniqua Allen,2019-01-08 Young Black Americans have been trying to realize the promise of the American Dream for centuries and coping with the reality of its limitations for just as long Now a new generation is pursuing success happiness and freedom on their own terms In It Was All a Dream Reniqua Allen tells the stories of Black millennials searching for a better future in spite of racist policies that have closed off traditional versions of success Many watched their parents and grandparents play by the rules only to sink deeper and deeper into debt They witnessed their elders fight to escape cycles of oppression for more promising prospects largely to no avail Today in this post Obama era they face a critical turning point Interweaving her own experience with those of young Black Americans in cities and towns from New York to Los Angeles and Bluefield West Virginia to Chicago Allen shares surprising stories of hope and ingenuity Instead of accepting downward mobility Black millennials are flipping the script and rejecting White America s standards Whether it means moving away from cities and heading South hustling in the entertainment industry challenging ideas about gender and sexuality or building activist networks they are determined to forge their own path Compassionate and deeply reported It Was All a Dream is a celebration of a generation s doggedness against all odds as they fight for a country in which their dreams can become a reality A Step Along the Way Stephen J. Pope ,2015-07-30 Scribner's Monthly, an Illustrated Magazine for the People ,1925 Macmillan's Magazine David Masson,George Grove,John Morley,Mowbray Walter Morris,1892 Coral Ridge Presbyterian Church Communicator ,2003 MacMillan's Magazine Sir George Grove,David Masson,John Morley,Mowbray Morris,1892 Faith and the Future of the Countryside Alan Smith,Jill Hopkinson,2012 Faith and the Future of the Countryside offers up to date resources for theological reflection preaching and practical action in response to issues affecting rural congregations and whole communities in the 21st century Arising out of a conference marking the 20th anniversary of the publication of the Archbishops report Faith in the Countryside this forward looking volume focuses on sustainability environmental economic communal and ecclesial Including contributions from practitioners in a variety of Christian denominations this is a resource book for clergy church leaders and others in rural ministry to enable them to understand key issues in the context of mission and enable the church to respond to those issues through its prophetic voice and practical local actions Topics included are the changing profile of rural communities health and wellbeing the politics of food production the rural economy the local effects of climate change the pastoral mission of the rural church spirituality and the countryside and more The Century ,1925 William Faulkner, William James, and the American Pragmatic Tradition David H. Evans,2008-05-01 In William Faulkner William James and the American Pragmatic Tradition David H Evans pairs the writings of America s most intellectually challenging modern novelist William Faulkner and the ideas of America s most revolutionary modern philosopher William James Though Faulkner was dubbed an idealist after World War II Evans demonstrates that Faulkner s writing is deeply connected to the emergence of pragmatism as an intellectual doctrine and cultural force in the early twentieth century Tracing pragmatism to its very roots Evans examines the nineteenth century confidence man of antebellum literature as the original practitioner of the pragmatic principle that a belief can give rise to its own objects He casts this figure as the missing link between Faulkner and James giving him new prominence in the prehistory of pragmatism Moving on to Jamesian pragmatism Evans contends that James s central innovation was his ability to define truth in narrative terms just as the confidence man did as something subjective and personal that continually shapes reality rather than a set of static unchanging facts In subsequent chapters Evans offers detailed interpretations of three of Faulkner s most important novels Absalom Absalom Go Down Moses and The Hamlet revealing that Faulkner too saw truth as fluid By avoiding conclusion and finality these three novels embody the pragmatic belief that life and the world are unstable and constantly evolving Absalom Absalom stages a conflict of historical discourses that much like the pragmatic concept of truth can never be ultimately resolved Evans shows us how Faulkner explores the conventional and arbitrary status of racial identity in Go Down Moses in a way that is strikingly similar to James s criticism of the concept of identity in general Finally Evans reads The Hamlet a work that is often used to support the idea that Faulkner is opposed to modernity as a depiction of a distinctly pragmatic and modern world With its creative coupling of James s philosophy and Faulkner s art Evans s lively engaging book makes a bold contribution to Faulkner studies and studies of southern literature The Bookman ,1923 The Pastoral Review ,1926 The United States Army and Navy Journal and Gazette of the Regular and Volunteer Forces ,1902 Quarterly Bulletin ,1902 The Parliamentary Debates (official Report). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,1924 Contains the 4th session of the 28th Parliament through the session of the Parliament The Parliamentary Debates Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords,1924 British Medical Journal ,1904
