Music the Market and the Marvellous examines the French fairy play in the last third of the nineteenth century. It is among the first book-length studies on the genre, the first in a language other than French, and the first from a musicological perspective. Sabbatini demonstrates that, contrary to conventional wisdom, the French fairy play was still thriving during the fin de siècle, giving rise to innovations such as the composerly fairy play and the scientific fairy play. The plays, the theatre industry, and urban geography are discussed together as befits a commercial genre where the marvellous was shaped by the market. Recovering this forgotten but once hugely influential repertoire provides an occasion to rethink generic taxonomies of Parisian theatre and the ontology of nineteenth-century popular theatre.

France-Chine Lihua Zheng, Xiaomin Yang, 2007-01-01

Les relations sino-françaises se voient affectées avec l'ouverture de la Chine sur le monde. Il s'agit de revenir sur les influences réciproques entre les penseurs français et chinois dans l'histoire, mais également d'observer les phénomènes générés par les changements économiques et technologiques. L'accent est mis sur les questions interculturelles soulevées par les contacts professionnels et quotidiens qui ne cessent de s'intensifier avec la présence de plus en plus importante des entreprises françaises en Chine et chinoises en France.
