_____ HOW MUCH DO YOU THINK MENTALITY IMPACTS YOUR GAME

About 30% of your impact on the game is marked by your mentality and emotional control Countless players lose League of Legends games not because of a lack of mechanics or gameplay skills but because of poor emotional management in difficult times In this book you will learn Finding your motivation The weight of attitude in a game Understanding the numbers and statistics behind bad luck What is variance and how it can affect us How to fight bad luck The importance of decisions How to differentiate between chance and causality The independence of decisions and of each game Understanding the role of emotions in League of Legends Types of emotions Pride anger fear Attitude during defeat Is it good to be greedy in League of Legends Emotional Reactions The 4 emotional levels of defeat Facing a losing streak Consequences of losing streaks How to deal with a losing streak How to fight tilt Positive tilt or overconfidence Moving up in division Identifying types of tilt and take advantage of the opponent I think there is a great lack of training in terms of mindset There s a lot of theory about how best to play League of Legends macro game or strategy and micro game or tactics However you have to keep in mind that League of Legends is a cooperative game and as such we don t play against machines but against other people and at certain times we don t apply logic but rather let ourselves be driven by emotions such as anger rage or frustration Are you aware of what you feel while playing Do you know that your emotions are a consequence of your thoughts and these are a product of the training of your mentality Do you prepare yourself before during and after to avoid going into tilt Do you feel that you really have better mechanical skills than the players in your division but you can t get out of it I am Manuel Martín Civil Engineer from the University of Granada Spain My hobbies are computing and everything related to technology as well as science and psychology I have been playing League of Legends since 2014 I look forward to helping you with my work
