A Family-Centered Signed Language Curriculum to Support Deaf Children's Language Acquisition Razi M. Zarchy, Leah C. Geer, 2023-08-24 Deaf children experience language deprivation at alarmingly high rates One contributing factor is that most are born to non signing hearing parents who face insurmountable barriers to learning a signed language This Element presents a case for developing signed language curricula for hearing families with deaf children that are family centered and focus on child directed language Core vocabulary functional sentences and facilitative language techniques centered around common daily routines allow families to apply what they learn immediately Additionally Deaf Community Cultural Wealth DCCW lessons build families capacity to navigate the new terrain of raising a deaf child If early intervention programs serving the families of young deaf children incorporate this type of curriculum into their service delivery survey data suggest that it is both effective and approachable for this target population so the rates of language deprivation may decline

Material Cultures of Music Notation Floris Schuiling, Emily Payne, 2022-05-16 Material Cultures of Music Notation brings together a collection of essays that explore a fundamental question in the current landscape of musicology how can writing and reading music be understood as concrete material practices in a wider cultural context Drawing on interdisciplinary approaches from musicology media studies performance studies and more the chapters in this volume offer a wide array of new perspectives that foreground the materiality of music notation From digital scores to the transmission of manuscripts in the Middle Ages the volume deliberately disrupts boundaries of discipline historical period genre and tradition by approaching notation s materiality through four key interrelated themes knowledge the body social relations and technology Together the chapters capture vital new work in an essential emerging area of scholarship
