Police Integrity in South Africa Sanja Kutnjak Ivkovich,Adri Sauerman,2020-04-29 Policing in South Africa has gained notoriety through its extensive history of oppressive law enforcement In 1994 as the country s apartheid system was replaced with a democratic order the new government faced the significant challenge of transforming the South African police force into a democratic police agency the South African Police Service SAPS that would provide unbiased policing to all the country s people More than two decades since the initiation of the reforms it appears that the SAPS has rapidly developed a reputation as a police agency beset by challenges to its integrity This book offers a unique perspective by providing in depth analyses of police integrity in South Africa It is a case study that systematically and empirically explores the contours of police integrity in a young democracy Using the organizational theory of police integrity the book analyzes the complex set of historical legal political social and economic circumstances shaping police integrity A discussion of the theoretical framework is accompanied by the results of a nationwide survey of nearly 900 SAPS officers probing their familiarity with official rules their expectations of discipline within the SAPS and their willingness to report misconduct The book also examines the influence of the respondents race gender and supervisory status on police integrity Written in a clear and direct style this book will appeal to students and scholars of criminology policing sociology political science as well as to police administrators interested in expanding their knowledge about police integrity and enhancing it in their organizations

The Skills Balancing Act in Sub-Saharan Africa Omar Arias, David K. Evans, Indhira Santos, 2019-01-31 Despite strong recent economic growth Sub Saharan Africa has levels of economic transformation poverty reduction and skill development far below those of other regions Smart investments in developing skills aligned with the policy goals of productivity growth inclusion and adaptability can help to accelerate the region s economic transformation in the 21st century Sub Saharan Africa s growing working age population presents a major opportunity to increase shared prosperity Countries in the region have invested heavily in building skills public expenditure on education increased sevenfold over the past 30 years and more children are in school today than ever before Yet systems for building skills in this population have fallen short and these shortcomings significantly impede economic prospects In half of the countries fewer than two in every three children complete primary school even fewer reach and complete higher levels of education Learning outcomes have been persistently poor leading to substantial gaps in basic cognitive skills literacy and numeracy among children young people and adults The literacy rate of the adult population is below 50 percent in many countries functional literacy and numeracy rates are even lower Systemwide change is required to achieve significant progress Multiple agencies at the central and local levels are involved in skills development strategies making skills everyone s problem but no one s responsibility Policies and reforms need to build capacity for evidence based policies and create incentives to align the behaviors of all stakeholders with the pursuit of national skills development goals The Skills Balancing Act in Sub Saharan Africa Investing in Skills for Productivity Inclusivity and Adaptability lays out evidence to inform the policy choices that countries will make in skill investments Each chapter addresses a set of specific questions drawing on original analysis and synthesis of existing studies to explore key areas How the skills appropriate to each stage of the life cycle are acquired and what market and institutional failures affect skills formation What systems are needed for individuals to access these skills including family investments private sector institutions schools and other public programs How those systems can be strengthened How the most vulnerable individuals those who fall outside the standard systems and have missed critical building blocks in skills acquisition can be supported. Countries will face trade offs often stark ones that will have distributional impacts and a bearing on their development path. Committed leaders, reform coalitions and well coordinated policies are essential for taking on the skills balancing act in Sub Saharan Africa. ICMLG 2018 6th International Conference on Management Leadership and Governance Dr Vincent Ribiere, 2018-05-24. Bombardier Abroad David P. Thomas, 2018-10-10T00:00:00Z. In Bombardier Abroad Thomas examines several cases of the Canadian aerospace giant's work in the high speed rail sector in South Africa, China, Tibet and Israel/Palestine and argues that these projects are deepening existing social and political tensions. By participating in these infrastructure projects, Thomas argues, Bombardier is both inserting itself into highly contested social and political climates and profiting from actions that further exacerbate existing conditions of dispossession and inequality. Thomas also examines the various ways in which the Canadian state supports the work of Bombardier in these countries. Centred around a theoretical framework that combines concepts of dispossession, political economy and important interventions from the field of settler colonial studies, Bombardier Abroad is a critical look at the problematic practices of a Canadian corporation and the ways in which the Canadian state is culpable. Mediascapes of Ruined Geographies in the Global South Diego Granja do Amaral, A. Chukwudumebi Obute, 2023-08-15. This book undertakes an interdisciplinary and cross cultural interrogation of the Global South through the prisms of media and cultural studies. It closely explores the quotidian re-territorialization and brazen ruination of the material geographies of this vast expanse of the world by forces and proxies of neo colonialism and global capitalism of resource extraction. We cite the ongoing expulsion of Palestinians from their homelands by occupational forces, the emerging detritus dump across Mexico City and Lagos, the infrastructural precariousness of the favelas of Brazil, the unending resource war in the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) and the flagrant operation of the oil industry in the Niger Delta region of Nigeria as examples of this geographic cataclysm. The centripetal forces of neo colonialism and resource extraction at full flight in the Global South, aided by toxic hegemonic forces, have overtly tossed some of the population to the peripheries of existence and the society at large. As such, this book additionally explores the resistance of the subalterns from the margins to this socio political malaise and further unmasks the knowledge production from these margins of the Global South. This project is divided into five parts of three essays each. The first part examines the territorial contestation in the Middle East framed and expressed through films and literary lenses. The second part examines the environmental burden of modern consumerism and urbanization on metropolis across Mexico, Brazil and Nigeria, while the third part explores the attritional violence of resource extraction in the DRC, Brazil and Nigeria via filmic and journalistic lenses. The fourth part offers a swift response from the margins through ethnographic and journalistic interrogation of the subjectivity of the subalterns of Brazilian favelas and street artists The fifth part offers an engaging critique of the political climates of South Africa and Brazil that reinforce the environmental catastrophe of the regions of the world Annual Report Mpumalanga (South Africa).
