Delimitation Nicholas A. Ioannides,2020-09-27 This book delves into the major developments triggered by the hydrocarbon discoveries in the Eastern Mediterranean over the last twenty years focusing on maritime boundary delimitation Examining the impact that the hydrocarbon discoveries have had on the application of the law of the sea rules by the East Med states the book looks at the new trends concerning the implementation of the law of the sea in the region The book analyses regional state practice in terms of maritime delimitation namely the conclusion of bilateral agreements based on the law of the sea rules both conventional and customary reflecting the East Med states willingness to cooperate in order to reap the benefits of the energy windfall Alongside this analysis an outline of the hydrocarbon discoveries and the pertinent maritime activities is given as well as further coverage of the overlapping maritime claims and disputes between Greece Cyprus and Turkey on one side and Lebanon and Israel on the other Moreover the book examines the validity of maritime claims made by or through non state entities in the region namely the State of Palestine the UK Sovereign Base Areas and the so called Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus and their potential impact on the delimitation agreements already in place The book argues that the East Med paradigm concerning the successful application of the pertinent norms in maritime delimitation proves that international law is resilient and capable of providing solutions in other turbulent regions around the globe This book will be of interest and importance to academics and students of international law professionals in the oil and shipping industries legal professionals and government agencies ASEAN Plus Three ,2016 Trade Policy Review ,2018

Parliamentary Debates India. Parliament. Rajya Sabha,2016-11 Treaties in Force ,1985 China's Footprints in Southeast Asia Ma. Serena I. Diokno,Xinhuang Xiao,Alan Hao Yang,2019 The countries that make up Southeast Asia are seeing an incredible resurgence in their economic power Over the past fifty years their combined wealth has reached the same level as the United Kingdom and taken together they are on track to become the fifth largest world economy But that stability and success has drawn the attention of the second largest world economy China The emerging superpower is increasingly involved in Southeast Asia as part of the ongoing global realignment As China deepens its influence across the region the countries of Southeast Asia are negotiating spaces for themselves in order to respond to or even challenge China's power This is the first book to survey China's growing role in Southeast Asia along multiple dimensions It looks closely and skeptically at the multitude of ways that China has built connections in the region including through trade foreign aid and cultural diplomacy It incorporates examples such as the operation of Confucius Institutes in Indonesia or the promotion of the concept of guangxi China's Footprints in Southeast Asia raises the question of whether the Chinese efforts are helpful or disruptive and explores who it is that really stands to benefit from these relationships The answers differ from country to country but as this volume suggests the footprint of hard and soft power always leaves a lasting mark on other countries institutions
