bolt I dropped the bat my eyes glued to his wound The poor chap must have noticed my preoccupation and that I had dropped my weapon for he sat down with a look of utter defeat in his eyes Hoping I was conveying sympathy after my look of horror I mumbled You poor bastard what have they done to you I led him back to the surgery This time I did remember to lock the door in case his attackers were still in the neighborhood I helped him into the chair and donned gloves and glasses before turning my attention to his plight
