Le Roman Du Sel:

A Thousand Screenplays Sabine Chalvon-Demersay, 1999-05 In 1991 French public television held an amateur screenwriting contest When Sabine Chalvon Demersay a French sociologist examined the roughly 1 000 entries she had hoped to analyze their differences What she found however surprised her Although the entrants covered nearly every social demographic their screenplays presented similar characters in similar situations confronting similar problems The time of crisis presented by the amateur writers was not one of war famine or disease it was the millennial dilemma of representation In a world plagued by alienation individualization and a lack of mobility how can members of a society combat their declining senses of self Although the contestants wrote about life in France their concerns and struggles have a distinctly universal ring A lucid witty writer Chalvon Demersay offers a clear if still developing photograph of the contemporary imagination

Congress, Eva Kushner,1994 The subject of acculturation lies at the heart of Comparative Literature in its relationship to cultural studies It attempts to capture and to articulate the nature of the interaction of cultures through literary texts In the past acculturation has often manifested itself through the dominance of an invading or invasive culture over another in fact it has not infrequently been synonymous with the subjection of non European cultures to Western civilization Yet it can be shown that the receptor culture far from being passive has the ability to appropriate and transform the invader culture which in turn undergoes acculturation a dynamic of great complexity never at a standstill Many of the phenomena described in this volume relate to the second type of acculturation which is no longer a more or less official program of enforced cultural adaptation but a far more pervasive and spontaneous movement of feedback which can indeed be reciprocal and eventually lead to intercultural dialogue □□ ,1914
