La Noire Idole:

The Women T.C. Boyle, 2009-02-10 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A riveting The Wall Street Journal and wonderfully entertaining The Boston Globe account of Frank Lloyd Wright's life told through the experiences of the four women who loved him Boyle handles the big themes Wright the genius battling an uncomprehending philistine world and Wright the man loving and loathing his women with extraordinary brio San Francisco Chronicle Is it easy to live with a genius Frank Lloyd Wright's life was one long howling struggle against the bonds of convention whether aesthetic social moral or romantic He never did what was expected and he never let anything get in the way of his larger than life appetites and visions Wright's triumphs and defeats were always tied to the women he loved Olgivanna Milanoff an imperious Montenegrin beauty who was a student of the Russian mystic Gurdjieff and was known by Wright's apprentices as the Dragon Lady Maude Miriam Noel a passionate Southern belle with a mean temper and a fondness for morphine the spirited Mamah Borthwick Cheney tragically murdered at Wright's Wisconsin estate Taliesin in 1914 and his young first wife Kitty Tobin with whom he had six children T C Boyle deftly captures these very different women and in doing so creates a sexy gripping drama about marriage the bargains men and women make and the privileges and pitfalls of genius and fame Chronique Médicale, 1907

Pamphlets on Biology, 1892 The Women T. Coraghessan Boyle, 2009 A tale inspired by the life of Frank Lloyd Wright is presented from the perspectives of four very different women who loved him and offers insight into the eminent architect's enduring struggles against conventional boundaries 75 000 first printing Coleridge, the Sublime

Somnambulist John Charpentier, 1929 Drugging France Sara E. Black, 2022-09-15 In the nineteenth century drug consumption permeated French society to produce a new norm the chemical enhancement of modern life French citizens empowered themselves by seeking pharmaceutical relief for their suffering and engaging in self medication Doctors and pharmacists meanwhile fashioned themselves as gatekeepers to these potent drugs claiming that their expertise could shield the public from accidental harm Despite these efforts the unanticipated phenomenon of addiction laid bare both the embodied nature of the modern self and the inherent instability of the notions of individual free will and responsibility Drugging France explores the history of mind altering drugs in medical practice between 1840 and 1920 highlighting the intricate medical histories of opium morphine ether chloroform cocaine and hashish While most drug histories focus on how drugs became regulated and criminalized as dangerous addictive substances Sara Black instead traces the spread of these drugs through French society demonstrating how new therapeutic norms and practices of drug consumption transformed the lives of French citizens as they came to expect and even demand pharmaceutical solutions to their pain Through self experimentation doctors developed new knowledge about these drugs transforming exotic botanical substances and unpredictable chemicals into reliable pharmaceutical commodities that would act on the mind and body to modify pain sensation and consciousness From the pharmacy counter to the boudoir from the courtroom to the operating theatre from the battlefield to the birthing chamber Drugging France explores how everyday encounters with drugs reconfigured how people experienced their own minds and bodies
