Investigation of the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Assassinations, 1979 Investigation of the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy: September 18, 19, 20, and 21, 1978 United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Assassinations, 1978 Assassination of experience by painting, Monory Jean-François Lyotard, 2013 Lyotard met Jacques Monory in 1972 and the text on him published at that time was the first that Lyotard dedicated to contemporary art since Discourse Figure Lyotard's interest in the plastic arts thus fits fully within the setting of his political preoccupations The artist protagonist stages the recurring motifs that fascinate Lyotard the scene of the crime the revolver the woman the victim glaciers deserts stars The atmosphere of the essays on Monory is Californian Monory's imaginary repertoire goes well beyond the masters of modernity and is in line rather with a modern contemporary surrealism Both Lyotard and Monory live the dilemma of Americanization the America represented by cinema fashion novels music It is in this atmosphere that Lyotard and Monory will finally evoke their supreme experience of difference desire and fear exultation and a profound malaise The plastic universe of Monory and the aesthetic meditations of Lyotard are in perfect symbiosis Sarah Wilson's epilogue thoroughly outlines both the history of a friendship and at the same time the intellectual and artistic climate of the 1970s The Assassination of Jacques Lemaigre Dubreuil William A. Hoisington, Jr., 2004-11-10 This is a political biography of the French industrialist and political activist Jacques Lemaigre Dubreuil 1894 1955 president of the Taxpayers Federation in the 1930s entrepreneur in wartime France and Africa organizer of the Group of Five in Algiers which prepared for the Allied landings in North Africa November 1942 inventor of General Henri Giraud as a candidate for the leadership of liberated North and West Africa negotiator of the Murphy Giraud Agreements and the Anfa Memorandum with President Roosevelt 1942 and 1943 political writer on the postwar future of France in Morocco and the owner of the liberal newspaper Maroc Presse He was assassinated in Casablanca by French counter terrorists in June 1955 a turning point event which pushed the French government to grant independence to Morocco Was he a rabble rouser a demagogue a betrayer of French interests at home and overseas or a reformer a patriot a hero of the anti German resistance and a champion of Franco Moroccan solidarity Investigation of the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy, 1964 The Assassination of New York Robert Fitch, 1993 Robert Fitch argues that within a generation New York City has been transformed from the richest city in the world to one of the poorest in North America The pillars of its economy Macy's the Daily News Citibank Olympia and York the Trump organization have cracked or collapsed Today the officially poor in New York number nearly 2 000 000 and more than 400 000 residents of the city are without jobs In this indictment of those who have wrecked New York Robert Fitch points to the financial and real estate elites Their goals he argues have been simple and monolithic to increase the value of the land they own by extruding low rent workers and factories replacing them with high rent professionals and office buildings The planning establishment has been able to raise the value of real estate inside the city boundaries over twenty fold In doing so Fitch suggests it effectively closed New York's deep water port eliminated its freight rail system shuttered its factories and destroyed its capacity for incubating new business Now the real estate values have collapsed The city is left with 65 000 000 square feet of office space enough to last without any new building to the middle of the twenty first century In pursuit of those who are responsible Fitch arraigns the great and the bad of the city's establishment Roger Starr architect of planned shrinkage the withdrawal of fire police and mass transit services from black and Latino neighborhoods the Ford Foundation which proposed converting vast tracts of the South Bronx into a vegetable garden City Hall fixers like John Zucotti Herb Sturz and James Felt who cut the deals between government and real estate by working for both sides and the Rockefeller family whose involuntary investment in the Rockefeller Center became a gigantic tar baby nearly swallowing up their entire fortune Drawing on never before published material from the Rockefeller family archives as well as other archival documents this book aims to expose those responsible for the demise of New York
