A Tailor in Auschwitz David van Turnhout, Dirk Verhofstadt, 2022-09-22 David Van Turnhout and Dirk Verhofstadt traced the story of David s Jewish grandfather Ide Leib Kartuz Fleeing from antisemitism and violence he came to Antwerp in 1929 and set up business as a tailor The family he left behind ended up in the ghetto of Radomsko Each and every member of the family was gassed at Treblinka In Belgium Kartuz joined the resistance movement but was arrested by the Nazis in 1942 and deported to Auschwitz On arrival there his wife and two children immediately died a horrible death He survived in a unit of tailors where he repaired camp clothing and SS guards uniforms sometimes receiving special orders from SS officers Kartuz endured an inhuman death march to Mauthausen After the war back in Antwerp he made tailored suits for bankers and other business people His final battle was against the Belgian state for recognition as a Belgian citizen member of the resistance and war victim Very few people realise how difficult it was for Jewish people to survive after liberation The authors dig deep into the core of the Holocaust and investigate every trail from Radomsko to Miami In the Auschwitz archives they discover unpublished witness statements by tailors in Block 1 And completely unexpectedly they also discover a cousin of Ide s living in Florida She had survived as a child by hiding in an attic in Brussels and speaks for the first time about those dark days It took the authors a year to wind their questing way through important discoveries and setbacks but in this tribute an unknown piece of history has finally been given a face American Jewish Year Book 2015 Arnold Dashefsky, Ira M.
