Christians, John P. Ferré, P. Mark Fackler, 1993-06-03 Mass media ethics and the classical liberal ideal of the autonomous individual are historically linked and professionally dominant yet the authors of this work feel this is intrinsically flawed They show how recent research in philosophy and social science together with a longer tradition in theological inquiry insist that community mutuality and relationship are fundamental to a full concept of personhood The authors argue that persons in community provides a more defensible grounding for journalists professional moral decision making in crucial areas such as truth telling privacy organizational culture and balanced coverage With numerous examples drawn from life as well as from theory this book will interest journalists editors and professionals in media management as well as students and scholars of media ethics reporting and media law Communication and Media Ethics Patrick Lee Plaisance, 2018-09-10 Ethics in

Global Journalism Ethics Stephen J.A. Ward, 2010-03-26 Stephen Ward argues that present media practices are narrowly based within the borders of single country and thus unable to successfully inform the public about a globalized world Presenting an ethical framework for work in multimedia the author extends John Rawls theories of justice and the human good to redefine the aims for which journalism should strive and then applies this new foundation to issues such as the roles of patriotism and objectivity in journalism An innovative argument that presents a necessary corrective to contemporary media practices Global Journalism Ethics is a theoretically rich study for journalists on the air in print and on the internet
