

Marriott Hotel: Reputation Management

Topic: Business | Words: 1712 | Pages: 6

Introduction

The Internet revolution and evolving market dynamics in the 21st century have altered the modus operandi of several enterprises in contemporary marketplaces. The rising significance of reputation in the internet world is one of the most significant transformations. As a result, hotel reputation management is the process of monitoring and influencing how hotel properties are regarded on the Internet (Hotel Reputation Management, 2022). The notion originated in public relations but transferred its emphasis to review sites, social media platforms, and search engines that were only developing at the time. Given how simple it is to share thoughts, user evaluations of various items have become more popular (Jezierski, 2020). With respect to hotel reputation, Marriott hotel businesses must adopt effective reputation management techniques that enhance their image and protect their identity from being damaged or diminished. Hence, hotel reputation is a fundamental facet that the hospitality industry must possess; thus, its deficiency may have catastrophic implications on a company's operations and income.
