Le Pacte T0vengeance:

The Hysteric's Revenge Rachel Mesch, 2006 Brings into relief a critical relationship between the female mind and body that is essential to understanding the discursive position of the turn of the century woman writer This book includes novels that confront this mind body problem through a wide variety of styles and genres that challenge conventional fin de siecle notions of femininity League of Nations Publications ,1921 An Algebraic Introduction to Complex Projective Geometry Christian Peskine, 1843 In this introduction to commutative algebra the author choses a route that leads the reader through the essential ideas without getting embroiled in technicalities He takes the reader quickly to the fundamentals of complex projective geometry requiring only a basic knowledge of linear and multilinear algebra and some elementary group theory The author divides the book into three parts In the first he develops the general theory of noetherian rings and modules He includes a certain amount of homological algebra and he emphasizes rings and modules of fractions as preparation for working with sheaves In the second part he discusses polynomial rings in several variables with coefficients in the field of complex numbers After Noether s normalization lemma and Hilbert s Nullstellensatz the author introduces affine complex schemes and their morphisms he then proves Zariski s main theorem and Chevalley s semi continuity theorem Finally the author s detailed study of Weil and Cartier divisors provides a solid background for modern intersection theory This is an excellent textbook for those who seek an efficient and rapid introduction to the geometric applications of commutative algebra League of Nations Publications ,1920 David After David Andrew Mark Ledbury, 2007 With essays by Val rie Bajou Philippe Bordes Thomas Crow Michael Fried Tom Gretton Darcy Grimaldo Grigsby St phane Gu gan Daniel Harkett Godehard Janzing Dorothy Johnson Mehdi Korchane Ewa Lajer Burcharth Issa Lampe Mark Ledbury Simon Lee Heather McPherson David O Brien Satish Padiyar Todd Porterfield Susan L Siegfried and Helen Weston Jacques Louis David 1748 1825 the most celebrated painter of his era was appointed court painter to Napoleon in 1804 and exiled to Brussels in 1816 This important book based on the proceedings of an international symposium explores David s grand projects of the Empire period and the often mysterious works produced in his last years as a political exile David after David features twenty one essays by leading art historians that discuss these later works which include innovative portraits as well as paintings and drawings that address the opposing themes of the antique and modern in the aesthetic political and social contexts of their production and reception The book also draws upon recently discovered letters the artist wrote in exile and provides fascinating new perspectives into his life and art Distributed for the Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute Williamstown Massachusetts Women's Stories in Le Mercure Galant (1672-1710) Deborah Steinberger, 2025-10-01 What do women want to read Jean Donneau de Vis the founder and editor in chief of Le Mercure Galant one of France s first newspapers was arguably the first journalist to ask this question and to recognize and capitalize upon the influence of female readers and their social networks By including custom content and performing the act of listening to women Le Mercure Galant situates itself as an intermediary using the nouvelle as a vehicle to amplify women's voices. These fictions presented as true stories depict incidents and situations that women often bore silently in real life: domestic violence, romantic betrayal, dishonor, or simply loneliness. By publishing these stories alongside its chronicle of historic events, the Mercure lends credence and prestige to depictions of the private life of anonymous individuals exploiting the ostensibly anodyne genre of women's fiction to disseminate modern ideas about women's agency.

This work focuses on autothanatography, the writing of one's death. The study also argues that autobiography is aporetic, not or not only a matter of a subject strategizing with language to produce an exemplary identity, but a matter also of its responding to an exorbitant call to its death.

Bureaucrats and Beggars Thomas McStay Adams, 1991-01-31

In the mid-eighteenth century in France, the royal authorities launched a new campaign to sweep beggars from the streets, pinning their hopes on the creation of a uniform royal network of lock-ups in which anyone found begging might be detained. In this study, Adams probes the accomplishments and the failings of these so-called dépôts de mendicité as seen by critics of the experiment, including learned judges and influential spokesmen of the provincial Estates, and as seen by those responsible for its success: the provincial intendants, the royal engineers, the doctors, the inspectors, the contractors, and various givers of advice. He shows how the debate, both internal and external, over the operation of the dépôts contributed to the intellectual ferment of the Enlightenment and the Revolution. The resulting web of reasoning and empirical data gave support to Montesquieu's principle that the state owes every one of its citizens a secure subsistence, suitable food and clothing, and a manner of life that is not contrary to good health.
