A Comparative Perspective of Women's Economic Empowerment Meltem Yenilmez, Onur Celik, 2019-05-29 The need for the creation of an enabling political legal and economic environment for women within Turkey is rising A growing concern is shown at the ethnic divisions and local discrimination against women which have spilled over into the labor market This book lends a supporting voice to the economic and social empowerment of women globally focusing on the real causes and the unpredictable nature of the ongoing conflicts surrounding the issue The authors bring to the forefront problems of development within various regions and the implementation of projects which address the state of women inequality and risks that are inimical to their participation in the economy Emphasis is laid on why women should be permitted access to the many opportunities in information technology and exchange partnership growth and networking in this digital era The oppressive policies of Turkey are scrutinized to unravel the dangers they pose to the corporate existence of women in the modern world Furthermore this book centers on the deliberation on regional politics and issues on gender and women s empowerment in modern Turkey whilst comparing with other countries The work sheds light on salient issues and possible remedies within target countries and the concerted efforts made to create a reliable structure to discuss gender conflicts Ample contributions from countries such as the US Germany Serbia South Africa and United Kingdom are pivotal to comparing and examining the main debates Addressing several global gender related examples as well as Turkey s national principles this book encourages full involvement of women and girls in deciding the fate of their country This book serves as the rallying point of an array of informative and mind expanding works of literature in regional studies gender studies migration economy and area studies in countries like Turkey USA Serbia UK and India Experts students and readers in the academic sphere may find this work educative and intellectually fulfilling Eastern Africa Social Science Research Review, 2003

Governing Natural Resources for Sustainable Peace in Africa Obasesam Okoi, Victoria R Nalule, 2023-12-18 This book examines the dynamics of natural resource conflicts in Africa and explores the different governance approaches for securing sustainable peace One of the most prominent challenges facing Africa today is the consequences of natural resource extraction While these resources hold the potential for economic transformation across Africa their extraction also comes with a range of environmental social and economic consequences including issues related to governance This book assembles a unique cohort of peacebuilding environmental justice and sustainable development scholars and practitioners from Africa and beyond to examine the dynamics of natural resource conflict and explore the governance approaches that offer pathways for sustainable peace in Africa Drawing on case studies and empirical lessons from the Horn of Africa Southern Africa West Africa East Africa and the Central Sahel region along with the African Union the multidisciplinary contributors offer fresh insights into the nature of natural resource conflict in Africa delve deeper into the complexities of natural resource governance and highlight the interplay between resource governance and sustainable peace By shedding light not only on

Africa's experiences and vulnerabilities but also on the challenges of natural resource governance this book fills a crucial gap in understanding the connection between natural resource governance conflict and pathways for sustainable peace in Africa Drawing on a range of disciplinary perspectives this book will be of interest to students and scholars of natural resource governance peace and conflict studies environmental policy and justice sustainable development security studies and African studies more widely

The Mammals of the Southern African Sub-region J. D. Skinner, Christian T. Chimimba, 2005-11-15 This third extensively revised edition of The Mammals of the Southern African Subregion contains detailed descriptions of all mammals that occur naturally on the African mainland south of the Cunene and Zambezi rivers together with all mammals indigenous to the subregion's coastal waters The rapid accumulation of new information resulting from mammal research in southern Africa together with radical taxonomic changes across all levels of mammalian classification have necessitated this new edition which presents the best and latest data accurately in one comprehensive volume for use not only by scientists but also by an increasingly wide audience of general readers with an interest in the natural history of southern Africa J D Skinner and C T Chimimba have revised expanded and updated the text in a major project overseen by an editorial committee constituted by the Mammal Research Institute at the University of Pretoria Specialists on each mammalian order have served as subeditors and a range of independent and internationally recognised authorities have reviewed every species description In this edition all the distribution maps and many of the illustrations of mammal prints have been updated and redrawn several new colour plates have been added and the whole design of this definitive reference work has been enhanced to ensure easy access to information
