Literacy Beyond Picture Books Dorothy Dendy Smith, Jill Fisher DeMarco, Martha Worley, 2009-06-02 I was rejuvenated by the opportunities for exciting and meaningful instruction My creative thoughts ran rampant with how I could use these ideas with my novice teachers as well as within my classroom Jayne Englert Burns Consulting Teacher Special Education Montgomery County Public Schools Germantown MD The authors have done a nice job of describing how to make teaching student centered by focusing on individual student interests and learning styles and by making classroom instruction exciting and fun Dennis H Reid Director Carolina Behavior Analysis and Support Center Engage students interest and build foundational literacy skills Teaching literacy to middle school and high school students with significant disabilities can prove challenging when available reading materials often don't match students reading levels and interests This accessible step by step guide shows teachers how to match students with appropriate texts and develop inventive themed units that encourage literacy learning Teachers can build whole units around a selected text and create hands on activities that engage multiple senses This valuable resource includes sample activities and lesson plans ideas for adapting general education materials and essential information on how to Build vocabulary and use retelling and guided reading Teach functional skills on a daily basis Incorporate media and assistive technology Coordinate with general education teachers and involve parents Assess students learning and meet IEP goals Perfect for special education and inclusive classrooms this resource features everything teachers need to motivate students with disabilities and help them develop literacy skills

Developing Learning Skills Through Children's Literature Mildred Laughlin, Letty S. Watt, 1986 This book suggests ideas for sharing literature that may be utilized in developing a scope and sequence of literature experiences for children in grades K 5 For primary grades K 2 the activities are primarily arranged through sharing the works of a particular author or illustrator Through this deliberate exploration the child begins to know that person as a friend So he is excited about new books by that same author or illustrator and discusses books on a level not often achieved if authors are approached only haphazardly Those included represent a variety of classic and current authors and illustrators too good to miss who have made a particular contribution to literature for young people

Themes Teachers Use Marjorie J. Kostelnik, 1996 Fresh class tested and requested often by teachers these 39 thematic units are filled with age appropriate child centered learning activities for such new topics as art and artists and science and scientists Adaptation suggestions are great for multiage and mainstreamed classrooms
