Weaving a Malawi Sunrise Roberta Laurie, 2015-11-23 When you educate a girl you educate a nation Malawian saying The women of Malawi like many other women in developing countries struggle to find their way out of poverty and build a better life for themselves and their families Weaving a Malawi Sunrise tells the story of Memory Chazeza's quest to get an education and to build a school for young women Roberta Laurie was one of many who helped Memory realize her vision of seeing young girls become strong and independent women who could care for themselves and their future families During her time in Malawi Laurie met several other women each of whom had a story of her own Laurie combines these personal accounts with detailed information about the country's underlying social and political context Readers interested in Africa global affairs women's studies development and international education will give high marks to Weaving a Malawi Sunrise

The Praeger International Handbook of Special Education Michael L. Wehmeyer, James R. Patton, 2017-06-15 This handbook provides a concise overview of special education services in countries across the world using the Article on Education in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities as the analytical frame The Praeger International Handbook of Special Education presents a concise and clear overview of special education services in more than 70 countries across the world using the Article on Education in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with disabilities as the analytical frame Each chapter offers information about the country in general followed by sections on the public education system the private education system the special education system teacher training requirements and barriers to and promising trends in inclusive and special education The volumes and chapters are organized by the United Nations Geoscheme with Volume 1 including an overview of the volumes and chapters on countries in the Americas Volume 2 addressing countries from Europe and Africa and Volume 3 focusing on countries in Asia and Oceania This is the most complete exploration of the delivery of supports and services to children and youth with disabilities across the globe available The volumes do not compare among or between countries but rather provide a baseline for understanding current special education practices and their relationship with general education and inclusive practices across the globe Readers will come away with an in depth understanding of what is happening with regard to the implementation of special education services and Article 24 of the Convention for the Rights of People with Disabilities This valuable reference set serves researchers graduate students and policymakers in special and general education as well as professionals focused on issues of education worldwide and scholars focused on international special education As such this handbook will be an important reference source for university libraries professional associations and policy entities Globalisation and Education Policy Reform in Botswana Richard Tabulawa, 2023-07-21 This book uses the global local dialect approach to explicate education policy reform in Botswana and interrogates the practical effects of the various education policies on curriculum pedagogy and governance of the Botswana General Education system Considering the effect of three reform policies since Botswana's Independence in 1966 the book evaluates the performance of each of the policies and examines their consequences in terms of the interplay of global forces and domestic pressures The result of this interplay has been an education landscape that while reflecting globally circulating education discourses markedly differs from those same discourses The book argues that the State in Botswana has appropriated education policy to legitimate itself in times of crisis and that each policy has improved access to general education but collectively have failed to improve its quality making suggestions for how this can be improved in the future As the first book of its kind to delve into education in Botswana from a single authored critical lens the book will be a highly relevant reading for academics researchers and post graduate students of African education comparative education education policy and curriculum studies

Pathways to Prosperity in Rural Malawi Andrew Dabalen,Alejandro de la Fuente,Aparajita Goyal,Wendy Karamba,Tomomi Tanaka,2017-07-06 By most accounts rural Malawi has lacked dynamism in the past decade Growth has been mostly volatile in large part due to unstable macroeconomic fundamentals evidenced by high inflation fiscal deficits and interest rates When rapid economic growth has materialized the gains have not always reached the poorest Poverty remains high and the rural poor face significant challenges in consistently securing enough food Several factors contribute to stubbornly high rural poverty They include a low productivity and non diversified agriculture macroeconomic and recurrent climatic shocks limited non farm opportunities and low returns to such activities especially for the poor and poor performance from some of the prominent safety net programs The Report proposes complementary policy actions that offer a possible path for a more dynamic and prosperous rural economy The key pillars of this comprise macroeconomic stability increased productivity in agriculture faster urbanization better functioning safety nets and more inclusive financial markets Some recommendations call for a reorientation of existing programs such as the Malawi Farm Input Subsidy Program FISP and the Malawi Social Action Fund Public Works Program MASAF PWP Others identify promising new areas of intervention such as the introduction of digital IDs and biometric technologies to enhance the reach of mobile banking and deepen financial inclusion Finally and importantly the report recommends the scaling up of investments on girls secondary education to curb early child marriage and early child bearing among adolescents This will empower women at home and work and bend the trajectory of fertility rates in rural areas in order to boost human development and reduce poverty
