Standard & Poor's Stock Reports ,2010-11 Therapeutic Modalities Kenneth Knight,Kenneth L. Knight,David O. Draper,2012-02-15 Authored by two leading researchers in the athletic training field the Second Edition of Therapeutic Modalities The Art and Science provides the knowledge needed to evaluate and select the most appropriate modalities to treat injuries The authors use an informal student friendly writing style to hold students interest and help them grasp difficult concepts The unique approach of the text teaches aspiring clinicians both the how and the why of therapeutic modality use training them to be decision making professionals rather than simply technicians The Second Edition is revised and expanded to include the latest research in therapeutic modalities New material has been added on evidence based practice and other areas such as pain treatment are significantly expanded It retains the successful format of providing the necessary background information on the modalities followed by the authors 5 Step Application Procedure New photos illustrations and case studies have also been added

The Longevity Code Kris

Verburgh,2018-01-23 Why do we grow old Verburgh tackles this age old question with practical suggestions for how to slow down our biological clock David Ludwig MD PhD 1 New York Times bestselling author Do you know exactly how and why you age And what you can do whatever your current age to slow that process and have a longer healthier life In The Longevity Code medical doctor Kris Verburgh illuminates the biological mechanisms that make our bodies susceptible to heart attacks dementia diabetes and other aging related diseases With the facts laid out he provides the tools we need to slow down the aging process His scientifically backed Longevity Staircase outlines a simple yet innovative step by step method offering better health and a longer life span especially the crucial role of proper nutrition and exercise But diet and exercise might not be the only way to crack the longevity code With each passing day advances in biotechnology that were once the stuff of science fiction are emerging Dr Verburgh discusses how new types of vaccines mitochondrial DNA CRISPR proteins and stem cells may help us slow and even reverse aging now and in the future and when paired with the right lifestyle lead to longer healthier lives than we ve ever imagined Verburgh examines how we age and takes a valuable look at ethical issues surrounding the prevention of aging Library Journal

Giving Space to African Voices Zehlia Babaci-Wilhite,2014-08-07 This book sets out to bring voices of the South to the debate on localization of education and makes the case that it should be considered a right in education Despite all the scientifically based evidence on the improved quality of education through the use of a local language and local knowledge English as a language of instruction and Western knowledge based curriculum continue to be used at all educational levels in many developing nations This means that in many African countries the goal of rights to education is becoming increasingly remote let alone that of rights in education With this understanding and with the awareness of the education challenges of millions of children throughout Africa the authors argue that local curriculum through local languages needs to be valued and to be preserved and that children need to be prepared for the world in a language that promotes understanding The authors make a clear case that policy makers are in a position to work towards a quality education for all as part of a more comprehensive right based approach We owe it to the children of the South to offer the best quality education possible in order to achieve social justice
