Mamoulian Tom Milne,2019-07-25 The great Armenian American director Rouben Mamoulian 1897 1987 remains a favourite among film makers his films combining great technical originality with a uniquely poetic visual style Mamoulian s technical innovations are evident from his first film Applause 1923 in which he incorporated two separate soundtracks into one printing thus overcoming the difficulty of sound levels which had frustrated the pioneer directors of talkies and in Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde 1931 in which he used synthetic sound painted directly onto the soundtrack Such inventive solutions to film making challenges were linked to Mamoulian s abiding sense of the magic of the cinema He used colour as a dramatic ingredient in the first three strip Technicolour film Becky Sharp 1935 and his musicals Summer Holiday 1948 and Silk Stockings 1957 were remarkable in their time for the way in which the dance was used to enhance the drama and to illuminate character And for Garbo in Queen Christina 1933 he created the framework for her greatest role Tom Milne s classic study first published in 1969 provides a film by film analysis of Mamoulian s career and challenges widespread critical assumptions about the director s oeuvre In his foreword to this new edition Geoff Andrew recognises Milne s careful and insightful analysis of Mamoulian s expressive and imaginative style and asks whether this unique director ought to be considered as an auteur Andrew also pays tribute to Milne s elegant witty and eclectic critical style and hails him as one the most important and influential British writers on film
