He won 25 of his 72 Grands Prix and in the sixties was the yardstick by which every other driver on the starting grid was judged and by which they judged themselves. Quite simply Clark was peerless. Stubborn and notoriously indecisive outside the car he would nervously chew his fingernails but he was a genius when he got behind the wheel. To many he remains the greatest racing driver of all time not just because of his fearsome strike rate and the magnitude and manner of his achievements but also because he remained humble and unspoiled throughout.
