Support for Growth-oriented Women Entrepreneurs in Kenya Lois Stevenson, Annette St-Onge, 2005 The African Development Bank's AfDB Addis Ababa Forum in June 2003 focused on the role of women entrepreneurs in private sector development poverty reduction and sustainable growth and development It provided an opportunity for the AfDB and the International Labour Office ILO to join forces using their complementary expertise in support of women owned businesses in Tanzania Ethiopia and Zambia This report is based on the country assessment for Kenya where the ILO has been researching and supporting women's entrepreneurship Examining such issues as the economic context micro finance Micro and Small Enterprises in Kenya Andrew Mullei, Crispin Bokea, 1999

Assessment of RUFORUM member universities in Kenya Mose, Lawrence, Gao, Lang, Beintema, Nienke M., 2018-11-29 Credible quantitative and qualitative information on existing capacities in agricultural higher education agencies in Africa are important for decisionmakers at national regional and international levels Decisionmakers require data and indicators for strategic planning policy formulation setting priorities and benchmarks measuring progress toward benchmarks and identifying capacity gaps Decisionmakers need a better understanding of the specifics of existing staffing and student capacities in the higher education sector as well as in the wider agricultural innovation systems in Africa south of the Sahara Access to such information will result in better policies addressing capacity issues in agricultural higher education research extension and other areas The existence of such information however remains extremely limited Kenya Engineer, 2003 Public & Private Universities in Kenya Kilemi Mwiria, Partnership for Higher Education in Africa, 2007 Reviews the history of higher education in Kenya and details the emergence of private universities most of them with a Christian religious orientation as major players in the provision of tertiary level education

Differentiation and Articulation in Tertiary Education Systems Njuguna Ng'ethe, George Subotzky, George Afeti, 2008-01-01 This title explores an area of tertiary education that is currently understudied this is the extent and nature of differentiation and articulation in African tertiary education systems The overall finding is that the binary system is dominant characterised by universities and polytechnics as distinct types of institutions Differentiation is clearly evident in Africa However though varied in nature and extent the differentiation is mostly horizontal as opposed to vertical Articulation on the other hand seems to be in its infancy as some universities in their admission requirements d

African Women and Intellectual Leadership Maurice Nyamanga Amutabi, Emily Achieng' Akuno, Humphrey J. Ojwang, Dannica Fleuss, 2024-02-29 This book highlights the pioneering roles of African women as leaders and role models in Kenya providing examples taken from across education health business and a range of other sectors Drawing on authentic first hand accounts and narratives from key women in leadership positions and those who have lived with them the book presents the life stories of women leaders over the last fifty years aiming to preserve their contributions for posterity and to inspire young people with moral ethical and progressive role models The book uses African knowledge production strategies that look at the human being holistically in the prism of Ubuntu in order to define leadership in Africa from an African perspective one that celebrates the role of the mother figure and places women at the centre of African values and societal dynamics This book will be of interest to researchers and students of African studies gender studies and Kenyan education and socio political history Internationalisation of Higher Education David K.
