This book gives voice to a group of leisure scholars who are engaged in conversations about sustainability. Beginning with discussions on the relationship between leisure and sustainability and how these concepts are addressed in current literature, a case is made for continued investigation of how leisure and sustainability need to be better understood and viewed as integrally linked. The book discusses issues related to environmental sustainability, how at the local level leisure is considered as a solution to a range of social, environmental, and economic issues, and the value of leisure as an asset for addressing several social sustainability challenges. This book was originally published as a special issue of Leisure Loisir Journal of the Canadian Association for Leisure Studies. Journal of the Department of Agriculture, Western Australia Western Australia. Santaniello, Robert E. Evenson, David Zilberman, 2002-03-06
The investment climate for firms producing genetically modified GM agricultural products has recently experienced considerable change with the occurrence of a remarkably high rate of farmer acceptance but considerable consumer resistance. The present system that involves firms developing biotech products, farmers producing the products, food, and related agribusiness, industrial firms, and consumers of food is very volatile. This, however, will soon be affected by changes in regulatory trade and food safety regimes. This book addresses these key issues and is based on papers presented at the fourth meeting of The International Consortium on Agricultural Biotechnology Research (ICABR) on Economics of Agricultural Biotechnology held at Ravello, Italy, in August 2000. Organized in four parts, this volume focuses on Consumer reactions to GM food information, Regulatory issues, Farmer acceptance of biotech products, Changes in industrial organization in life science and food sectors. ECKM 2021 22nd European Conference on Knowledge Management Dr. Alexeis Garcia-Perez, Professor Lyndon Simkin, 2021-09-02 The Irish Law Times and Solicitors' Journal, 1875 Journal of the Department of Agriculture, Western Australia, 1900 The Solicitors'
