La Part Manquante:

, Social Dynamics in the Highlands of Southeast Asia François Robinne, Mandy Sadan, 2007 Drawing on long term fieldwork and research in communities from Assam through to Laos this book offers a unique level of reappraisal of the work of Edmund Leach and is a significant contribution to the development of a new regional anthropology of Southeast Asia

Processus de réhabilitation des auteurs de violences sexuelles André Ciavaldini, 2022-05-03 La prise en charge spécifique des auteurs de violences sexuelles s'inscrit dans le cadre de la loi du 17 juin 1998 relative à la prévention et à la répression des infractions sexuelles et à la protection des mineurs et s'appuie sur les CRIAVS. Après un premier ouvrage sur la psychopathologie des agresseurs sexuels et en tenant compte des recherches et évaluations menées depuis, l'auteur développe la notion de réhabilitation ou d'assistance, c'est-à-dire ce qui aide la personne à quitter la voie de la délinquance selon un modèle psychodynamique. Il s'agit d'appréhender la complexité qui conduit l'acte délinquant comme tentative de survie psychique et d'utiliser cette compréhension pour forger des dispositifs favorables à la réhabilitation subjective de son auteur qui ne peut être qu'un des volets efficaces de la réhabilitation globale. Interviendront de multiples partenaires judiciaires pénitentiaires thérapeutiques. Après les rappels théoriques et cliniques nécessaires, l'ouvrage développe l'approche thérapeutique psychodynamique et l'aménagement des cadres institutionnels d'accueil en articulation avec le judiciaire, celui-ci faisant partie intégrante du soin. La troisième partie centre sur le concept de réhabilitation, explique l'intégration des dispositifs thérapeutiques individuels dans l'environnement social et présente le travail en réseau mis en œuvre dans plusieurs départements pour les auteurs de violences sexuelles sous injonction pénale de soins. La place spécifique du thérapeute est ensuite envisagée au sein de ce réseau pluridisciplinaire qui associe le médical, le social et le juridique. Cet ouvrage s'adresse aux psychiatres, aux psychologues, mais aussi aux magistrats et aux accompagnants du champ social.

La part manquante Christian Bobin, 2013-06-04T00:00:00+02:00 C'est par incapacité de vivre que l'on crît. C'est par nostalgie d'un Dieu que l'on aime. Un livre, c'est un chèque. Un amour, c'est une fuite. Nous ne pouvons entreprendre que de biais, nous ne pouvons vivre que de profil. Nous ne sommes jamais où nous croyons être. Notre désir est voué à l'errance. Notre volonté est sans poids. Parfois, quand même, on approche quelque chose. Parfois, quand même, on reçoit des nouvelles de l'éternel. Le battement des lumières sur un visage. La tombée de la foudre dans une encre.

Masters of Psalmody (bimo) Aurélie Névoit, 2019-08-26 In Masters of Psalmody, bimo Aurélie Névoit analyses the religious, political and theoretical issues of a scriptural shamanism observed in southwestern

China among the Yi Sani Her focus is on blood sacrifices and chants based on a secret and labile writing handled only by ritualists called bimo Through ethnographic data the author presents the still little known bimo metaphysics and unravels the complexity of the local text based ritual system in which the continuity of each bimo lineage relies on the transmission of manuscripts whose writing relates to lineage blood While illuminating the usages of this shamanistic tradition that is characterized by scriptural variability between patrilineages Aur lie N vot highlights the radical changes it is undergoing by becoming a Chinese state tradition

This 'self' which is Not One Natalie Edwards, Christopher Hogarth, 2010 The oeSelf Which is Not One Women TM s Life Writing in French assembles articles on women TM s life writing from diverse areas of the Francophone world It is comprised of nine chapters that discuss female writers from North Africa Sub Saharan Africa the Caribbean and Europe in addition to French writers The idea of the self is currently attracting widespread interest in academia most notably in the arts and humanities The development of postmodernism supposes a fragmented oesubject formed from the network of available discourses rather than a stable and coherent self Jacques Derrida for example wrote that there is no longer any such things as a oesfull subject and Julia Kristeva now insists that the individual is a oesubject in process The growing importance of psychoanalytic theory particular in French studies has also impacted upon this development The basic tenet of psychoanalytic theory is that the individual is formed of a duality the conscious and unconscious parts of the self which prevent the individual from ever fully knowing her himself and which thus insists upon a plural incomplete self Developments in the field of postcolonial studies have also made us aware of different ways of approaching the self in different parts of the world and eroded the idea of a stable conscious and complete self As scholars examine these new ways of approaching the self autobiography has been the subject of renewed interest Several academic books have appeared in recent years that study the ways in which autobiographers represent the self as incomplete evolving and elusive In particular a number of books have appeared on the subject of women TM s autobiography and female subjectivity such as works by Sidonie Smith Julia Watson and Nancy Miller and several volumes interrogate postcolonial women TM s autobiography such as texts by Fran oise Lionnet Gayatri Spivak Carole Boyce Davies and Chandra Mohanty Our volume unites these strands of criticism by examining ways that female autobiographies write the self as a fragmented plural construct across the Francophone world This will be the first book length study of this important development This volume will be of interest primarily to students and scholars working in the areas of life writing French and Francophone studies postcolonial studies and gender studies The volume contributes to multiple areas that are currently garnering substantial interest in academe postcolonial studies Francophone studies gender studies and women TM s writing By comparing works from across the Francophone world our volume takes a global approach to the genre of autobiography and its inflections by women writers The oeSelf That is Not One in Women TM s Autobiography in French therefore represents a timely intervention in several interlinking academic fields and will thus garner substantial interest

La participation aux bénéfices Émile Waxweiler,1898 Canadian Journal of Counselling ,2006 Collective Intelligence Pierre Levy,1997-08-21 The number of travelers along the information superhighway is increasing at a rate of ten percent a month How will this communications revolution affect our culture and society Pierre Levy believes that rather than creating a society where machines rule man the technology of cyberspace will have a humanizing influence on us and foster the emergence of a collective intelligence a meeting of minds on the Internet that will validate the contributions of the individual With a depth of scholarship and imaginative insight rare among media critics Levy demonstrates how the unfettered exchange of ideas in cyberspace has the potential to liberate us from the social and political hierarchies that have stood in the way of mankind s advancement At once a profound historical analysis of the development of human culture and a blueprint for the future Collective Intelligence is a visionary work that will make a substantial contribution to our views on society through to the next millennium
