Business Transfers, Family Firms and Entrepreneurship Bérangère Deschamps, Audrey Missonier, Catherine Thévenard-Puthod, Paulette Robic, Dominique Barbelivien, 2020-12-14 Business transfer refers to the transfer of ownership and leadership from one or more outgoing owner manager(s) to one or more incoming owner manager(s) Apart from all the company's material assets it presupposes that information relationships know how and social capital are also transmitted from one to the other While much of the research on entrepreneurship has focused on new business ventures few studies have considered business transfers as an alternative way of embarking on entrepreneurial activities Business Transfers Family Firms and Entrepreneurship provides the international community with a more comprehensive state of the art of business transfer studies which will enrich readers' understanding The business transfer is examined through different prisms family businesses internal business transfers to employees external business transfers and women in business transfers This book deals with business transfer as a whole following a logic of continuity and sustainability for the transferred firm It offers a refreshing point of view on business transfers in terms of both the process and the actors and from both the seller s and the buyer s sides It presents the research on all types of business transfer including internal and external transfers and will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of entrepreneurship small business management family business and strategic management It can also be instructive for practitioners and stakeholders involved in a business transfer

Sociolinguistics in African Contexts Augustin Emmanuel Ebongue, Ellen Hurst, 2017-05-11 This volume offers a new perspective on sociolinguistics in Africa Eschewing the traditional approach which looks at the interaction between European and African languages in the wake of colonialism this book turns its focus to the social dynamics of African languages and African societies Divided into two sections the book offers insight into the crucial topics such as language vitality and endangerment the birth of new languages a sociolinguistics of the city language contact and language politics It spans the continent from Algeria to South Africa Guinea Bissau to Kenya and addresses the following broad themes Language variation contact and change The dynamics of urban rural and youth languages Policy and practice This book provides an alternative to the Eurocentric view of sociolinguistic dynamics in Africa and will make an ideal read or supplemental textbook for scholars and students in the field disciplines of African languages and linguistics and those interested in southern theory or sociolinguistics in the margins
