Mini-society, Experiencing Real-world Economics in the Elementary School Classroom Marilyn L. Kourilsky, 1983

Teachers will learn how to set up and operate a mini society a popular approach for teaching youngsters about economics and government through their own experiences Economic Development Through Youth ,1991 Don't Be Afraid of the Bullets Laura Kasinof, 2016-03-01 Laura Kasinof studied Arabic in college and moved to Yemen a few years later after a friend at a late night party in Washington DC recommended the country as a good place to work as a freelance journalist When she first moved to the capital city of Sanaa in 2009 she was the only American reporter based in the country She quickly fell in love with Yemen s people and culture and even found herself the star of a local TV soap opera When antigovernment protests broke out in Yemen in 2011 part of the revolts sweeping the Arab world at the time she contacted the New York Times to see if she could cover the rapidly unfolding events for the newspaper Laura never planned to be a war correspondent but found herself in the middle of brutal government attacks on peaceful protesters As foreign reporters were rounded up and shipped out of the country Laura managed to elude the authorities but found herself increasingly isolated and even more determined to report on what she saw With a new foreword by the author about what has happened in Yemen since the book s initial publication Don t Be Afraid of the Bullets is a fascinating and important debut by a talented young journalist Developing Entrepreneurship Virginia Moori Koenig, 2005 Best School in the World Molly

Hurd, 2017-04-01 There s a little known school in Halifax that kids are excited to attend every day right through until they graduate It s a place where they absorb real world skills including critical thinking and complex literacy math and second language abilities so that they stick They gather for intense whole school discussions on local issues create art using geometric calculations and dig into the school garden while learning about the biology of the native plant garden all in one typical week Over forty years the Halifax Independent School has developed an approach to education that reflects the ideas of leading educators but follows no set formula It offers parents and educators a vision of what schools could be like right across the country In this account of the best school in the world readers will find ideas big and small for how Canadian schools could do a better job of engaging challenging and educating their students Trading Places Claudia

Mills, 2006-03-21 Todd and Amy Davidson may be twins but they re complete opposites Todd is organized and is the family engineer while Amy is outgoing and has been dubbed the poet So it would seem that for a fifth grade economics project Todd would come up with a master invention and Amy would have a blast with her best friends as partners To their surprise Todd can t think of a single idea and Amy gets stuck working with the class crybaby Then Todd begins writing poetry But this is nothing compared to the switch their parents have made Their father has been unemployed for months and their mother has started to work at a crafts store Now there s never enough food in the house everybody is always on edge and when Amy s friends come over after school they find Mr Davidson uncombed and unshaven in his ratty old bathrobe Will life ever return to normal With chapters that alternate between Todd s and Amy s points of view this novel is a realistic and sometimes funny portrayal of a family adapting to changing roles Trading Places is a 2007 Bank Street Best Children s Book of the Year
