Mirror Sight English Edition:

Alhacen on Image-formation and Distortion in Mirrors: English translation and commentary Alhazen, A. Mark Smith, 2008

Medusa's Mirrors Julia M. Walker, 1998 The question of selfhood in Renaissance texts constitutes a scholarly and critical debate of almost unmanageable proportions The author of this work begins by questioning the strategies with which male writers depict powerful women Although Spenser's Britomart Shakespeare's Cleopatra and Milton's Eve figure selfhood very differently and to very different ends they do have two significant elements in common mirrors and transformations that diminish the power of the female self Mirrors and Mirroring from Antiquity to the Early Modern Period Maria

Gerolemou, Lilia Diamantopoulou, 2020-01-09 This volume examines mirrors and mirroring through a series of multidisciplinary essays especially focusing on the intersection between technological and cultural dynamics of mirrors The international scholars brought together here explore critical questions around the mirror as artefact and the phenomenon of mirroring Beside the common visual registration of an action or inaction in a two dimensional and reversed form various types of mirrors often possess special abilities which can produce a distorted picture of reality serving in this way illusion and falsehood Part I looks at a selection of theory from ancient writers demonstrating the concern to explore these same questions in antiquity Part II considers the role reflections can play in forming ideas of gender and identity Beyond the everyday we see in Part III how oracular mirrors and magical mirrors reveal the invisible divine prosthetics that allow us to look where the eye cannot reach Finally Part IV considers mirrors roles in displaying the visible and invisible in antiquity and since Mirrors of the Divine Emily R. Cain, 2023 Mirrors of the Divine examines four early Christian authors Tertullian of Carthage Clement of Alexandria Gregory of Nyssa and Augustine of Hippo and analyzes their writings on vision and knowledge of God to show how they envisioned one's relationship to the world and how they imagined the unknown Emily R

Cain explores how contradictory theories of sight shaped their cosmologies theologies subjectivities genders and discursive worlds and shows that early Christian arguments about the phenomenon of visual perception are deeply intertwined with broader debates about identity agency and epistemology Alhacen on Image-formation and Distortion in Mirrors
