Suffer the Children Gary Scott Smith, Jane Marie Smith, 2017-01-31 We all say that we care about children We all know that millions of children around the world including in the United States are suffering physically materially and emotionally and are unable to reach their full potential Moreover their material deprivation and physical ills often prevent them from responding to the gospel Most of us conclude that we cannot do anything significant to help the impoverished children living in our own backyards let alone those living in the slums of Nairobi or the hinterlands of Haiti We can however do much to improve their lives materially and spiritually Through praying giving generously sponsoring children volunteering with aid organizations living more simply investing and shopping more prudently and advocating more zealously in the political arena we can make a difference We can prod politicians business executives and church leaders to prioritize aiding destitute children We can support one of the hundreds of organizations that are working effectively to help indigent children have better lives Suffer the Children describes the plight of poor children and provides many practical ways we can participate in one of the most important crusades to improve our world would be shed on the growth of your relationship with the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit regardless of whether you are old or young in age or old or new in the faith If you are a scoffer may your eyes be opened If you are already a believer do not settle for salvation If you are a disciple do not just be a hearer of the Word but a doer Do not settle for just being a doer but come into full agreement with the Father through His Word Jesus said Greater works than these you shall do Are you doing greater works than He did Have you fulfilled all the plans He has for you A journey through A Gen R Journey should inspire each of us to take the next step in our walk into the immeasurable glorious Kingdom of God
