Liszt's Final Decade Dolores Pesce, 2014 Liszt's Final Decade reveals in the composer's own words to his confidantes Carolyn von Sayn Wittgenstein and Olga von Meyendorff how he resolved his conflicted self image as a celebrated performer but underappreciated composer Toward the end of his life Franz Liszt maintained extensive correspondence with two women who were at the time his closest confidantes Carolyn von Sayn Wittgenstein and Olga von Meyendorff Liszt wrote to them regularly expressing his intimate feelings about personal and career events and his conflicted self image as a celebrated performer but underappreciated composer Absent a diary the letters offer the most direct avenue into Liszt's psyche in his final years Liszt's Final Decade explores through these letters the mind and music of one of the nineteenth century's most popular musicians providing insight into Liszt's melancholia in his last years and his struggle to gain recognition for his music yet avoid criticism The exchange indicates that Liszt ultimately resolved his inner conflict through a personally constructed Christian moral philosophy that embraced positive resignation to suffering compassionate love and trust in a just reward to come The book also examines how Liszt's late sacred compositions affirm the yielding of suffering to joy and hope Significantly Liszt viewed these works commonly overlooked today as a major part of his compositional legacy This volume thus challenges the idea of a single late Lisztian style and the notion that despair overwhelmed the composer in his final years We are pleased to announce that Liszt's Final Decade is the winner of the 2017 Alan Walker Book Award given by the American Liszt Society Dolores Pesce is the Avis Blewett Professor of Music in Arts and Sciences at Washington University in St Louis
