Getting Into Business School Brandon Royal, 2013. A Treasure Trove of Tools and Tips to Help You Build Your Best Business School Application. GETTING INTO BUSINESS SCHOOL is based on a simple but powerful observation: Applicants who apply successfully to business school master a finite number of the most important application skills and strategies. What are these skills and strategies? The answer to this question is the basis of this book. Readers will find 100 easy-to-follow tips and a complete range of sample documents including 50 plus sample application essays covering all ten major MBA essay types as well as exhibits highlighting relevant application documents: sample letters of recommendation with critiques, an interview evaluation form complete with interviewer's comments, an interview thank-you note, sample employment records and professionally formatted resumes and extracurricular presentations showing how candidates present their awards and recognition, community service, collegiate activities and hobbies and interests. Read this book and gain an insider's understanding of all MBA application strategies in order to anticipate the likely reasons for acceptance and rejection at the most competitive business schools. Understand the interplay of both quantitative and qualitative admissions components. Write compelling admissions essays. Present a powerful employment record. Obtain detailed letters of recommendation. Maximize your ability to answer interview questions with insightfulness and confidence. Personalize your record of extracurricular involvement. This book provides coverage of all seven MBA application components with an in-depth focus on how to write superior application essays. In my 15 years running MBA admissions operations at four top schools, I have never reviewed a more helpful admissions manual. It is a must for all serious MBA candidates. Dr. Steven DeKrey, President, Asian Institute of Management, former GMAT Committee Chair, Graduate Management Admission Council.
