Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States. National Labor Relations Board, 2016-05      Columbine, 20 Years Later and Beyond Jaclyn Schildkraut, Glenn W. Muschert, 2019-01-17 This powerful retrospective analysis of the 1999 Columbine High School shooting aftermath considers society's response to the attack long term implications of the shooting and the ways in which research and related policy must continue to move forward An indispensable resource for anyone interested in learning about the long term impact of the 1999 Columbine High School shooting Columbine 20 Years Later and Beyond provides a comprehensive look at how the event unfolded what has changed since the attack and how this information can be used to prevent future mass shootings Authors Jaclyn Schildkraut and Glenn Muschert both experts on mass shootings share their broad understanding of this tragedy and its aftermath Columbine became the measuring stick against which all other mass shootings would be compared and this book details with great sensitivity the ensuing changes to school security law enforcement's response to active shooter situations threat assessment practices legislative efforts and media coverage of unfolding situations With delicacy and tact Schildkraut and Muschert help to answer the painful question raised by a stone on the wall of the Columbine Memorial What have we learned

Handbook of Research on Mass Shootings and Multiple Victim Violence Crews, Gordon A., 2019-10-25 The phenomena of mass shootings appear to be on the rise Within the past decade shootings have occurred in schools religious institutions concerts movie theaters and other public venues as well as at home in the form of domestic mass shootings This phenomenon is influenced by factors such as access to guns mental illness the desire for fame revenge from being bullied and copycat killing to name a few Mass shootings are a serious problem for society and must be explored further in order to provide preventive solutions The Handbook of Research on Mass Shootings and Multiple Victim Violence is a pivotal reference source that provides vital research on contributing factors to gun violence characteristics of shooters and victims solutions for preventing incidents from occurring and the impact these shootings have on the community While highlighting topics such as school safety cyberbullying and mental illness this publication is ideally designed for law enforcement government officials psychologists psychiatrists sociologists politicians policymakers law makers academicians researchers and students seeking current research on the latest empirical findings of mass shootings in the United States      Commemorative Spaces of the First World War James Wallis, David C. Harvey, 2017-07-20 This is the first book to bring together an interdisciplinary theoretically engaged and global perspective on the First World War through the lens of historical and cultural geography Reflecting the centennial interest in the conflict the collection explores the relationships between warfare and space and pays particular attention to how commemoration is connected to spatial elements of national identity and processes of heritage and belonging Venturing beyond military history and memory studies contributors explore conceptual contributions of geography to analyse the First World War as well as reflecting upon the imperative for an academic discussion on the War s centenary This book explores the War s impact in more unexpected theatres blurring the boundary between home and fighting fronts investigating the experiences of the war amongst civilians and often overlooked combatants It also critically examines the politics of hindsight in the post war period and offers an historical geographical account of how the First World War has been memorialised within official spaces in addition to those overlooked and often undervalued alternative spaces of commemoration This innovative and timely text will be key reading for students and scholars of the First World War and more broadly in historical and cultural geography social and cultural history European history Heritage Studies military history and memory studies Annual Report for the Scholastic Year Ending ... and for the Fiscal Year Ending ...
