Losing Our Religion? Kevin Ronald Ward, 2013-10-22 Church going in most Western societies has declined significantly in the wake of the social and cultural changes that began in the 1960s Does this mean that people in these societies are losing any religious dimension in their lives or is it being expressed in other forms and places This study begins by looking at comparative data on how church going patterns have changed in five countries Britain the United States Canada Australia and New Zealand examining reasons for the decline how churches have responded to these changes and why some churches have shown greater resilience It then explores some of the particular challenges these changes pose for the future of churches in these societies and some of the responses that have been made drawing on both sociological and theological insights The conclusion is that despite the loss of belonging believing persists and religion continues to play a significant role in these societies mediated in a variety of diffuse cultural forms Cases illustrating these changes are largely drawn from New Zealand which as the country most recently settled by Europeans has always been secular and thus provides helpful insights

Leaving Safe Harbors Dennis Carlson, 2002 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Maxine Hong Kingston's Broken Book of Life Maureen Sabine, 2004-02-29 The numerous studies of Maxine Hong Kingston's touchstone work The Woman Warrior fail to take into account the stories in China Men which were largely written together with those in The Woman Warrior but later published separately Although Hong Kingston's decision to separate the male and female narratives enabled readers to see the strength of the resulting feminist point of view in The Woman Warrior the author has steadily maintained that to understand the book fully it was necessary to read its male companion text Maureen Sabine's ambitious study of The Woman Warrior and China Men aims to bring these divided texts back together with a close reading that looks for the textual traces of the father in The Woman Warrior and shows how the daughter narrator tracks down his history in China Men She considers theories of intertextuality that open up the possibility of a dynamic interplay between the two books and suggests that the Hong family women and men may be struggling for dialogue with each other even when they appear textually silent or apart The Birth of Satan T. J. Wray, Gregory Mobley, 2005-10 Includes information on hell the names for God evil sin etc How Much Do We Deserve? Richard S.
