Hughes, Jennifer E. Jennings, 2012-01-01 Global Women's Entrepreneurship Research responds to recent calls from academic researchers and policy analysts alike to pay greater attention to the diversity and heterogeneity among women entrepreneurs Drawing together studies by 26 researchers affiliated with the DIANA International Research Network this collection contributes to a richer and more robust understanding of the field Part I Diverse Settings introduces research set in a range of contexts from those rarely examined to those representing more familiar terrains Part II Diverse Questions explores new questions and reframes old questions in fresh innovative ways Part III Diverse Approaches features studies with distinct methodological approaches that reflect and extend the rigour and creativity of research in this field Together the research assembled in this volume significantly advances knowledge about women's entrepreneurship around the world While the book's primary audience is academic researchers and graduate students working in the areas of women's entrepreneurship as well as entrepreneurship and family business more generally it will also be of interest to scholars working in related research areas in the sociology of gender work and organizations Policy makers in government and non government agencies as well as profit and not for profit organizations that provide services to or conduct research on women entrepreneurs will also benefit greatly from the insights provided in this unique volume

The Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM) and Its Impact on Entrepreneurship Research Niels S. Bosma, 2013 The Global Entrepreneurship Monitor GEM is a project carried out by a research consortium dedicated to understanding the relationship between entrepreneurship and national economic development Since 1999 GEM reports have been a key source of comparable data across a large variety of countries on attitudes toward entrepreneurship start up and established business activities and aspirations of entrepreneurs for their businesses The growing databases increasingly allow for in depth academic research and this is mirrored by the rapidly increasing amount of GEM based scientific publications in a wider range of academic journals At this point it is appropriate to provide an overview on these publications to summarize their main contributions and to provide some directions for obtaining promising GEM based academic contributions in the future This publication provides a review of 89 GEM based academic publications in SSCI listed journals since 2004 with the objectives to highlight the particular advantages of GEM data their quality and usability as well as their limitations It also recommends a number of ways in which the GEM project might evolve further and make more impact on entrepreneurship research on entrepreneurship policy and practice and ultimately on getting more grip on the complex relation between entrepreneurship and economic development

Women and Global Entrepreneurship Maura McAdam, James Cunningham, 2021-04-05 Entrepreneurship in context has been described as the third wave in entrepreneurship research Accordingly specific socio economic political market and institutional contexts are key to fostering enabling and enacting entrepreneurial activity and behaviours These contexts shape everyday entrepreneurship experiences This book is based on the premise that how gender is articulated within the entrepreneurial debate has to acknowledge context However context is not a construct that only applies to those economies and situations that differ from the presumed norm of Western developed nations Adopting a more critical appraisal of how context is positioned within current theorizing around gender and entrepreneurial behaviours offers potential to progress debate whilst acknowledging that competing and contrasting contextual influences require clearer recognition This book therefore has the potential to unearth credible and robust approaches to further examining contextualisation and women entrepreneurship that advances new insights By exploring and examining how contextual influences shape women's entrepreneurship this book challenges the assumption that women entrepreneurship is the same throughout the world It will be of value to researchers academics and students with an interest in entrepreneurship political economy economics and public policy

Handbook of Research on Policies and Practices for Assessing Inclusive Teaching and Learning

Meletiadou, Eleni, 2022-01-14 Inclusivity is a crucial factor in assessment design as fair assessment must reflect the needs of a diverse student body. Assessment practices should also be culturally inclusive and supportive to all students while considering the needs of learners with disabilities and specific learning difficulties. Educational institutions worldwide are adopting a range of principles using a variety of assessment methods and developing assessment literacy. All these issues must be considered when researching inclusive assessment practices and policies. The Handbook of Research on Policies and Practices for Assessing Inclusive Teaching and Learning discusses the needs of learners of any context, background, and culture. This book strives to promote the importance of global inclusive assessment and teaching, giving an understanding to educators and faculty of the negative effect uniform assessment and teaching strategies have on a diverse body of students. Covering topics such as equitable design, ethnic preferential policies, and multilingual perspectives, this book provides an indispensable resource for researchers, practitioners, educators, teacher educators, policymakers, administrators, program planners, educational managers, educational leaders, professors, and academicians.

Female Entrepreneurship in Transition Economies V. Ramadani, S. Görgür-Rashiti, A. Fayolle, 2015-04-22 This book explores different topics in the field of female entrepreneurship such as motivational factors of female entrepreneurs, career perspectives of women, social female enterprises, tourism and hospitality, and emotional and institutional support of female entrepreneurial initiatives in the perspective of different transitional countries.

Entrepreneurship Silvio Manuel Brito, 2018-04-04 Entrepreneurship is a powerful attitude that in such a way in the last few years has become a discipline increasingly transversal to different areas of knowledge. Many times we think about the things we want such as a good house, a brand new car, a beautiful relationship, a good friendship, and a good way to be in the world. Is that possible that you convert into an entrepreneur? This book shows some examples of that possibility from simple people to a big organization. In all cases, if you become an entrepreneur, it will be for your taste and pleasure, a means to survive and enjoy the uncertainty and rejoice that you have all these in your hands and will. Can you find out the trends and overcome the challenges? We would say yes. It all depends on whether you want to develop and apply this attitude.

Developing Charging Infrastructure and Technologies for Electric Vehicles Alam, Mohammad Saad, Pillai, Reji Kumar, Murugesan, N., 2021-12-31 The increase in air pollution and vehicular emissions has led to the development of the renewable energy-based generation and electrification of transportation. Further, the electrification shift faces an enormous challenge due to limited driving range, long charging time, and high initial cost of deployment. Firstly, there has been a discussion on renewable energy such as how wind power and solar power can be generated by wind turbines and photovoltaics respectively while these are intermittent in nature. The combination of these renewable energy resources with available power generation system will make electric vehicle (EV) charging sustainable and viable after the payback period. Recently, there has also been a significant discussion focused on various EV charging types and the level of power for charging to minimize the charging time By focusing on both sustainable and renewable energy as well as charging infrastructures and technologies the future for EV can be explored Developing Charging Infrastructure and Technologies for Electric Vehicles reviews and discusses the state of the art in electric vehicle charging technologies their applications economic environmental and social impact and integration with renewable energy This book captures the state of the art in electric vehicle charging infrastructure deployment their applications architectures and relevant technologies In addition this book identifies potential research directions and technologies that facilitate insights on EV charging in various charging places such as smart home charging parking EV charging and charging stations This book will be essential for power system architects mechanics electrical engineers practitioners developers practitioners researchers academicians and students interested in the problems and solutions to the state of the art status of electric vehicles
