Regimes of Comparatism, 2018-11-05 Historically all societies have used comparison to analyze cultural difference through the interaction of religion power and translation When comparison is a self reflective practice it can be seen as a form of comparatism Many scholars are concerned in one way or another with the practice and methods of comparison and the need for a cognitively robust relativism is an integral part of a mature historical self placement This volume looks at how different theories and practices of writing and interpretation have developed at different times in different cultures and reconsiders the specificities of modern comparative approaches within a variety of comparative moments The idea is to reconsider the specificities the obstacles and the possibilities of modern comparative approaches in history and anthropology through a variety of earlier and parallel comparative horizons Particular attention is given to the exceptional role of Athens and Jerusalem in shaping the Western understanding of cultural difference Contributors are Matei Candea Philippe Descola Renaud Gagn Simon Goldhill Anthony Grafton Caroline Humphrey Dmitri Levitin Geoffrey Lloyd Joan Pau Rubi s Jonathan Sheehan Marilyn Strathern Guy Stroumsa and Phiroze Vasunia Recueil de la Gazette des tribunaux, 1898
