

1. Text A

This question asks candidates to analyse a US magazine advertisement (taken from the Advertisement Gallery website) for a 1973 Bulova watch. The advertisement examines the connection between watches and successful men.

An adequate to good analysis will:

- comment that Text A is an advertisement offering a pictorial narrative linking success to an expensive but very accurate watch.
- offer some analysis of Text A (use of pictures, title, brief narrative, and “bottom line” details of the product, overall tone) in regard to its role as an advertisement.

A good to excellent analysis may also:

- offer a thorough analysis of Text A showing an awareness of the subtle interplay of text and visuals in regard to emphasizing the significance of time and its relationship to success and the cultural attitudes being conveyed, noting the emphasis on men.
- offer a careful consideration of the implications of the text, not only in terms of how to achieve “success”, but also the preservation of certain stereotypes as well:

that business is still perceived as a male enterprise, and perhaps seeing the irony/significance of the lady’s watch leaning on the man’s watch in Text A.
