Talking about Food Sofia Rüdiger, Susanne Mühleisen, 2020-06-15 All humans eat and all humans speak activities which in social life often but not always co occur We talk while eating and drinking with others but food is also a prominent literal and metaphorical discursive topic which contributes to establishing communities and identities This omnipresence of eating and drinking in our daily lives has led to a public fascination with foodways The contributions in this edited collection investigate the connection between language and food from a variety of perspectives As food discourses operate on local global and mediated levels they are intertwined with notions of identity and culture and thus shed light on intimate understandings of ourselves as human beings Talking about Food The Social and the Global in Eating Communities provides up to date and thought provoking contributions to the linguistics of food The book is essential reading for anyone interested in food related subjects

Salt Sugar Fat Michael Moss, 2013-02-26 From a

Pulitzer Prize winning investigative reporter at The New York Times comes the troubling story of the rise of the processed food industry and how it used salt sugar and fat to addict us Salt Sugar Fat is a journey into the highly secretive world of the processed food giants and the story of how they have deployed these three essential ingredients over the past five decades to dominate the North American diet This is an eye opening book that demonstrates how the makers of these foods have chosen time and again to double down on their efforts to increase consumption and profits gambling that consumers and regulators would never figure them out With meticulous original reporting access to confidential files and memos and numerous sources from deep inside the industry it shows how these companies have pushed ahead despite their own misgivings never aired publicly Salt Sugar Fat is the story of how we got here and it will hold the food giants accountable for the social costs that keep climbing even as some of the industry s own say Enough already Paula Deen Celebrates! Paula Deen,2006-10-10 From beloved Food Network personality restaurateur and New York Times I bestselling author Deen comes a cookbook and entertaining guide for creating delicious meals and spectacular down home celebrations for the holidays all year round
