

Macbeth Act IV Open Book Quiz

Name_____

Directions: Answer the following questions. Some numbers have more than one a question; be sure to respond to all of them.

1. The witches' chant is given in great detail. The emphasis is on sensational and spectacular images. (Remember: Shakespearean plays were not read as literature; they were written as entertainment; they were meant to be experienced.) The first scene of Act IV provides "good theater," accenting the weird sisters' bizarre, gruesome, hideous and fantastic aspects. This spectacle also foreshadows the macabre apparitions that follow when Macbeth enters in the second part of this scene. The strange ingredients of the hags' brew have a haunted quality and prepare the audience for the horror that is to follow. What illusions conjure images of the inferno itself (Hell, a fiery abyss) in this bizarre first scene? Quote these phrases verbatim and give the line number in parentheses after the quoted words.

2. Each apparition presents a paradox, which seems to provide comfort for Macbeth; however, Hecate has instructed the witches to prepare a brew that will bring about Macbeth's downfall. She congratulates them: "O well done! I commend your pains;" (IV i 37). Consequently, comfort is couched in riddles, and although Macbeth thinks he understands each of the apparitions, the true meaning of their messages is not divulged until later in the play. Identify the four apparitions and their messages? How does Macbeth interpret each of their meanings? What qualities are emerging in the character of Macbeth?
