From Oops to Aha Maleka Donaldson, 2021-04-30 From Oops to Aha pulls back the curtain on learning from mistakes in four public school Kindergarten classrooms urban charter Montessori and suburban With each chapter the reader is transported directly into the daily lives of teachers and their students The portraits offer poignantly detailed moment by moment illustrations of how teachers respond to mistakes and interact with students At the micro level this perspective reveals how teachers beliefs intentions and instructional practices play out in context during daily life in the classroom By juxtaposing the true stories of the lives of Kindergarten teachers and children Donaldson makes plain that even in this very early grade there is a wide and striking range of children s interpersonal and learning experiences in school All Kindergarten classrooms are not the same the nuanced way teachers respond to mistakes in the moment is impacted by access to resources and by policies enacted at a broader level This book will inform and inspire readers to reexamine preconceived notions of mistakes feedback and early childhood learning and teaching and to reconsider their impact on educational equity

The Academic Language of Climate Change Evangelos Manolas, Walter Leal Filho, 2022-09-16 Offering an interdisciplinary introduction to climate change and its intersection with numerous industries and facets of life this book provides a necessary and welcome introduction for undergraduate and graduate students and any non native English speakers seeking to engage with climate change research Branded Entertainment and Cinema Gloria

Dagnino, 2019-11-25 The history of Italian cinema is mostly regarded as a history of Italian auteurs This book takes a different standpoint looking at Italian cinema from the perspective of an unusual but influential actor advertisers From the iconic Vespa scooter and the many other Made in Italy products placed in domestic and international features to Carosello s early format of branded entertainment up through the more recent brand integration cases in award winning titles like The Great Beauty the Italian film and advertising industries have frequently and significantly intersected in ways that remain largely unexplored by academic research This book contributes to fill this gap by focusing on the economic and cultural influence that advertising and advertisers interests have been exerting on Italian film production between the post war period and the 2010s Increasingly market oriented film policies ongoing pressure from Hollywood competition and the abnormal economic as well as political power held by Italian ad funded broadcasters are among the key points addressed by the book In addition to a macro level political economic analysis the book draws on exclusive interviews with film producers and promotional intermediaries to provide a meso level analysis of the practices and professional cultures of those working at the intersection of Italian film and advertising industries Providing an in depth yet clear and accessible overview of the political and economic dynamics driving the Italian media landscape towards unprecedented forms of marketisation this is a valuable resource for academics and students in the fields of film and media studies marketing advertising and Italian studies
