Credition - An Interdisciplinary Approach to the Nature of Beliefs and Believing Rüdiger J. Seitz, Hans Ferdinand Angel, Raymond Paloutzian, Ann Taves, 2023-07-27 The concept of credition represents an innovative research field at the interface of the natural sciences and the humanities addressing the nature of beliefs and believing Credition signifies the integrative information processing that is brought about by neurophysiologically defined neural activity in the brain affording decision making In analogy to cognition and emotion it is mediated by neural processes and constrains behavior by predictive coding Three categories of beliefs have been defined on the background of evolutionary biology that can be differentiated linguistically The goal of the collection of research papers is to provide an interdisciplinary discourse on an international level in the emerging field of credition On this basis individual group specific and cultural narratives of secular and non secular origin can become normative in particular when enhanced by ritual acts Also the recently defined belief categories can pave the way for novel approaches of empirical research on the formation of civilizations and cultures as well as for new perspectives on the psychopathological understanding of mental disorders The disciplines of empirical research such as cognitive science neurophysiology neuropsychology social neuroscience shall counteract with theoretical disciplines such as anthropology philosophy and theology in order to elaborate premises that are suited to bridge the scientific gap The potential contributors will submit their abstracts such that they are available for the International meeting Credit An Interdisciplinary Challenge that is going to take place in October 2021 in Hannover Germany Following the symposium the participants shall elaborate their perspective concerning beliefs and believing based on their expertise and the information they have learned during the symposium The authors are expected to submit a concise paper of 2000 words C Type Article

World Survey on the Role of Women in Development United Nations Publications, 2015-06-30 Ensuring women's economic empowerment and access to and control over resources requires an integrated approach to growth and development focused on gender responsive employment promotion and informed by the interdependency between economic and social development Social objectives need to be incorporated into economic policies Economic growth strategies should give attention to the real economy and focus on creating a gender sensitive macroeconomic environment full employment and decent work access to land property and other productive resources as well as financial services and full coverage of social protection measures The Survey outlines a number of concrete recommendations in these critical areas which if adopted will facilitate women s equitable access to and control over economic and financial resources

Cases Argued and Decided in the Supreme Court of the United States,1928 Michigan Law Review ,2014 Editor & Publisher ,1910 Architecture, Building Materials and Engineering Management He Tao Hou,Li Tian,2013-08-08 Selected peer reviewed papers from the 2013 International Conference on Civil Architecture and Building Materials 3rd CEABM 2013 May 24 26 2013 Jinan China The International Stereotypers and Electrotypers Union Journal ,1913 How the Past was Used Peter Lambert,Björn K. U. Weiler,2017 This book explores how societies put the past to use and how in the process they represented it in short their historical culture It brings together anthropologists historians and literary scholars to address the means by which societies groups and individuals have engaged with the past and expressed their understanding of it The utility of the past has proven almost as infinitely variable as the modes of its representation It might be a matter of learning lessons from experience or about the legitimacy of a cause or regime or the reputation of an individual Rival versions and interpretations reflected but also helped to create and sustain divergent communities and world views With so much at stake manipulations distortions and myths proliferated But given also that evidence of past societies was fragmentary fragile and fraught with difficulties for those who sought to make sense of it imaginative leaps and creativity necessarily came into the equation Paradoxically the very idea that the past was indeed useful was generally bound up with an image of history as inherently truthful But then notions of truth proved malleable even within one society culture or period Concerned with what engagements with the past can reveal about the wider intellectual and cultural frameworks they took place within this book is of relevance to anyone interested in how societies communities and individuals have acted on their historical consciousness
