Moral and Political Values in Teacher Education over

Time Nick Mead, 2022-08-19 This collection brings together international teacher educators to employ a long view of an historic and values based dialectic in teacher education The authors reflect how employing historical consciousness to look back can offer greater continuity to teachers moral and political values within their training The book draws on research from experienced teacher educators representing different historical social and political contexts in North America Europe Asia as well in post conflict South Africa Within each section the authors reflect on the development of the moral and political values of pre service and in service teachers in an era of global neo liberalism and how this is inextricably bound up with the narratives of professionals in the past within their own national context Each chapter takes a long view of the role of historical consciousness in informing the moral and political values of pre service and in service teachers providing examples of how international teacher educators can collectively support one another in restoring a vibrant values based dialectic within the processes pedagogies and provision of university and school based training for which they are responsible The long view approach offers a compelling argument for the need to connect pre service and in service teachers values and narrative to the legacy of professionals of the past Moral and Political Values in Teacher Education over Time will be of great interest to researchers academics and students in teacher education comparative education and the history of education It will also be of interest to international university and school based teacher educators and policymakers in the field

Time and the Rhythms of Emancipatory Education Michel Alhadeff-Jones, 2016-10-26 Time and the Rhythms of Emancipatory Education argues that by rethinking the way we relate to time we can fundamentally rethink the way we conceive education Beyond the contemporary rhetoric of acceleration speed urgency or slowness this book provides an epistemological historical and theoretical framework that will serve as a comprehensive resource for critical reflection on the relationship between the experience of time and emancipatory education Drawing upon time and rhythm studies complexity theories and educational research Alhadeff Jones reflects upon the temporal and rhythmic dimensions of education in order to re theorize and address current societal and educational challenges The book is divided into three parts The first begins by discussing the specificities inherent to the study of time in educational sciences The second contextualizes the evolution of temporal constraints that determine the ways education is institutionalized organized and experienced The third and final part questions the meanings of emancipatory education in a context of temporal alienation This is the first book to provide a broad overview of European and North American theories that inform both the ideas of time and rhythm in educational sciences from school instruction curriculum design and arts education to vocational training lifelong learning and educational policies It will be of key interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of philosophy of education sociology of education history of education psychology curriculum and learning theory and adult education The Open Access
