The Violence of Conservation in Africa Ramutsindela, Maano, Matose, Frank, Mushonga, Tafadzwa, 2022-01-11
Offering insights on violence in conservation this timely book demonstrates how and why the state in Africa pursues conservation objectives to the detriment of its citizens. It focuses on how the dehumanization of black people and indigenous groups, the insertion of global green agendas onto the continent, a lack of resource sovereignty and neoliberal conservation account for why violence is a permanent feature of conservation in Africa. Political Communication in Sub-Saharan Africa, Volume II Isaac Mhute, Esther Mavengano, 2024-12-02 This book is one of two volumes that examines the role of political communication media and language in transforming politics, governance and democracy in sub-Saharan Africa. Interdisciplinary in approach, this second volume analyses themes including political advertising and rhetoric, activism, populism, fake news and political violence. Combining theoretical work with individual case studies on countries including Tanzania, South Africa, Zimbabwe, Nigeria and Ghana, the book highlights the important connection between political communication and governance and the ways in which language reforms can help to overcome challenges related to public administration. It will appeal to all those interested in public policy, public administration, governance and political communication as well as linguistics, media studies and African politics.

South African Foreign Policy David R. Black, David Hornsby, 2018-04-19 This book considers the identity, direction and intentions embodied in post-apartheid South African Foreign Policy. It aims to deepen the understanding of this evolving post-apartheid foreign policy through an exploration of the nature and trajectory of key bilateral relationships from both the global South: Brazil, China, Iran, the AU and North Japan and the UK. This window on the country's international relations enriches understanding of the normative and structural factors that influence not only South African foreign policy but those of what Jordaan (2003) calls emerging middle powers as they seek to position themselves as influential actors in international affairs. By sketching the contours of key South African relationships, the contributors offer illuminating insights into the cross pressures shaping South African foreign policy. In addition, they also add depth to the emerging middle power concept by exploring four areas where the tendencies and tensions of emerging middle power foreign policies are apparent: regionalism, multilateralism, reform of global governance and approach to moral leadership. This book was previously published as a special issue of Commonwealth and Comparative Politics.

Code-Switching as a Pedagogical Tool in Bilingual Classrooms Miriam Chitiga, 2021-11-29 Presenting a mixed methods study conducted in a bilingual mathematics classroom in Zimbabwe, this text reveals the semantic pedagogical functions and linguistic forms of code switching during STEM instruction. Code Switching as a Pedagogical Tool in Bilingual Classrooms offers a detailed analysis of code switching in the context of educational linguistics and reveals ten major pedagogical techniques which illustrate how teachers use code switches to engage students and provide guidance, clarification, discipline and recaps during individual and whole class interactions. Chapters highlight that code switching can be used in a targeted manner to harness the cognitive potential of bilingual speakers and enhance instruction. Ultimately the text identifies implications for teacher education, language policy and educational leadership more broadly and demonstrates intersections with key areas including functional critical and cultural literacy. This text will benefit researchers, academics and educators with an interest in bilingualism, applied linguistics and secondary education more broadly. Those specifically interested in multicultural education, sociolinguistics and educational policy will also benefit from this book.

Indigenous Language for Social Change: Communication in the Global South Tshepang Bright Molale, Abiodun Salawu, Mohammad Sahid Ullah, Enrique Uribe-Jongbloed, 2023-05-22. Indigenous Language for Social Change: Communication in the Global South brings together voices from the margins to engage in dialogue about common social change issues in Latin America, Africa and Asia. This book argues that resistance and social movements expressed in music and songs and exchanged via radio remain fundamental to ensure that the linguistic and cultural diversity of the world progresses despite colonizing pressures. Contributors present cases that explore how indigenous communities use mediums such as the radio to help support their language identity and expand their own social change. Highlighting the centrality of music in the development of political discussions and language as a central part of collective identity, contributors analyze how these mediums function as both a vessel and a link for information and cultural cohesion of those engaging in social change. Scholars of communication, sociology and development studies will find this book of particular interest. The
