The Report: Kenya 2014 Oxford Business Group, 2014-11-13 The country has a strong private sector and received encouraging forecasts of new oil gas and water reserves which if harnessed appropriately bode well for future growth While a pending international court case resulting from prior elections provoked a measure of uncertainty the country's medium to long term economic outlook is robust With over 40% of the population under the age of 15 Kenya stands to benefit from a significant demographic dividend provided that sufficient jobs can be found when this population bulge enters the workforce The country has a reasonably sized industrial base competitive infrastructure and a large agricultural sector all of which offer opportunities for capital intensive investment

Education in East and Central Africa Charl Wolhuter, 2014-06-26 Education in East and Central Africa is a comprehensive critical reference guide to education in the region With chapters written by an international team of leading regional education experts the book explores the education systems of Djibouti Eritrea Ethiopia Kenya Somalia South Sudan Tanzania Uganda Zambia Angola Burundi the Central African Republic the Democratic Republic of Congo Equatorial Guinea and Sao Tome Gabon the Republic of Congo and Rwanda The book critically examines the regional development of education provision in each country as well as recent reforms and global contexts Including a comparative introduction to the issues facing education in the region as a whole and guides to available online datasets this handbook is an essential reference for researchers scholars international agencies and policy makers at all levels

Natural Science Education, Indigenous Knowledge, and Sustainable Development in Rural and Urban Schools in Kenya Darren M. O'Hern, Yoshiko Nozaki, 2014-05-05 Through a multi sited qualitative study of three Kenyan secondary schools in rural Taita Hills and urban Nairobi the volume explores the ways the dichotomy between Western and indigenous knowledge operates in Kenyan education In particular it examines views on natural sciences expressed by the students teachers the state's curricula documents and schools exam oriented pedagogical approaches O'Hern and Nozaki question state and local education policies and practices as they relate to natural science subjects such as agriculture biology and geography and their dismissal of indigenous knowledge about environment nature and sustainable development They suggest the need to develop critical postcolonial curriculum policies and practices of science education to overcome knowledge oriented binaries emphasize sustainable development and address the problems of inequality the center and periphery divide and social cultural and environmental injustices in Kenya and by implication elsewhere In an era of environmental crisis and devastation education that supports sustainability and survival of our planet is needed Within a broader sociopolitical context of post colonialism and globalization this volume points out possibilities and challenges to achieve such an education The authors propose a critical postcolonial approach that acknowledges the contextual and situational production of all knowledge and that de dichotomizes indigenous from Western scientific knowledge Eric Rico Gutstein Professor Curriculum and Instruction University of Illinois at Chicago USA
