Standardization, Ideology and Linguistics N. Armstrong, I. Mackenzie, 2012-12-14 The authors explore some of the ways in which standardization ideology and linguistics are interrelated Through a number of case studies they show how concepts such as grammaticality and structural change covertly rely on a false conceptualization of language one that derives ultimately from standardization Revue des langues vivantes , 1978 Women's Language Eva Haettner

Aurelius, Hedda Gunneng, Jon Helgason, 2015-01-01 By linguistic close reading of more than a thousand letters from the 12th through the 18th centuries written in Latin Swedish French German and English this compilation analyzes the differences in language and communication between women and men Armed with an exhaustive stylistic analysis this volume attempts to answer the question Is there a special niche reserved for women's language As it pinpoints the variations in how women expressed themselves when addressing men or other women this detailed investigation of style and expression comes to the conclusion that there is no evidence for a particular female language however this authoritative work is a joy to follow for anyone interested in language linguistics stylistic analysis and gender Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts , 2006-07 Synchronic Romance Linguistics Rebecca Posner, John N. Green, 2011-04-20 TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS is a series of books that open new perspectives in our understanding of language The series publishes state of the art work on core areas of linguistics across theoretical frameworks as well as studies that provide new insights by building bridges to neighbouring fields such as neuroscience and cognitive science TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS considers itself a forum for cutting edge research based on solid empirical data on language in its various manifestations including sign languages It regards linguistic variation in its synchronic and diachronic dimensions as well as in its social contexts as important sources of insight for a better understanding of the design of linguistic systems and the ecology and evolution of language TRENDS IN LINGUISTICS publishes monographs and outstanding dissertations as well as edited volumes which provide the opportunity to address controversial topics from different empirical and theoretical viewpoints High quality standards are ensured through anonymous reviewing Prague Linguistic Circle Papers Eva Haji?ová, Oldřich Leřka, Petr Sgall, Zdena Skoumalová, 1996-05-31 Volume 2 of the Prague Linguistic Circle Papers constitutes a single whole together with Vol 1 of the series reviving the classical series of Travaux du Cercle linguistique de Prague which was of great importance for the development of European structural linguistics in the 1930s In the present volume nine Czech linguists and eight authors from abroad present new ideas in various domains from basic properties of the system of language to discourse types and to history of linguistics in the 20th century Fundamental issues of structural linguistics are discussed by C H van Schooneveld and Form of those of quantitative linguistics by M. T. Itelov of sentence structure by H. H. Lieb, Y. Tobin, J. Panevov, T. Gross and J. Abrula discourse patterns are dealt with by J. Hoffmannov, S. mejrkov and F. ticha phonology and graphemics by E. Battistella, A. Svoboda and P. A. Luelsdorff with S. V. Chesnokov and the lexicon by L. Waugh and V. Strakov

Cognitive Approaches to Tense, Aspect, and Epistemic Modality Adeline Patard, Frank Brisard, 2011-07-28 This volume addresses problems of semantics regarding the analysis of tense and aspect TA markers in a variety of languages including Arabic Croatian English French German Russian Thai and Turkish Its main interest goes out to epistemic uses of such markers whereby epistemic modality is understood as indicating a degree of compatibility between the modal world and the factual world Declerck All contributions moreover tackle these problems from a more or less cognitive point of view with some of them insisting on the need to provide a unifying explanation for all usage types temporal and non temporal and all of them accepting the premise that the semantics of TA categories essentially refers to subjective rather than objective concerns The volume also represents one of the first attempts to gather accounts of TA marking in various languages that are explicitly set within the framework of Cognitive Grammar Ultimately this volume aims to contribute to establishing an awareness that modal meaning elements are directly relevant to the analysis of the grammar of time
